3 Auto Mishaps Occur in Area

No Injuries Reported; Two Happen in City

No persons were injured in three accidents in Marion County reported by city police and state patrolmen today. Two of the accidents were minor ones in Marion, while the third was investigated by the patrol.

One accident involving a single vehicle was reported today by state patrolmen from the Marion post. The accident happened Tuesday at 6:15 a.m. on State Route 5 two miles east of Route 98.

A tractor-trailer outfit driven by Clifford M. Frank, 26, of Akron was moderately damaged when it went off the highway as it was eastbound.

Patrol reports show the vehicle went into a ditch on the right side, then swerved across the road into a ditch on the left side, grazing a utility pole owned by the Ohio Edison Co.

Frank was not injured. The truck was damaged on the right front fender and door, while the entire right side of the trailer was moderately damaged. No serious damage was reported done to the utility pole.

One Driver Arrested

One driver was arrested and charged with drunken driving in one of two no injury traffic accidents reported today by city police.

Arrest of Melvin Wildermuth, 53, of Maplewood, O., came after a one-car accident at N. Main and E. Mill St. in which his car struck the guard rails around a railroad flasher light signal at 11:59 a.m. Tuesday. Police said Wildermuth was observed as he pulled his car from a parking spot along the curb on E. Mill St. just east of N. Main St., up onto the railroad track and into the guard rails around the signal light. A hearing on the charge was scheduled in Municipal Court today.

Considerable damage was reported to two cars involved in an accident in front of the Jewish Temple at Mt. Vernon and S. Seffner Aves. at 7:38 p.m. Tuesday. A car parked owned by Dr. M. C. Smally of 1064 E. Church St. was struck by another car westbound on Mt. Vernon Ave. and driven by Mrs. Doxie M. Bentz of 260 Kensington Pl. Mrs. Bentz told police lights from an oncoming car blinded her and she did not see the parked car.

Save Life, AMA Hears

Blood-Thinning Drugs Valuable in Heart Attack

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Blood-thinning drugs might have saved 640,000 Americans who died of heart attacks in the last 10 years—a life every eight minutes—a physician said today.

The drugs, anticoagulants, help dissolve or prevent blood clots which block the main artery to the heart. Dicoumarol and heparin are main examples.

How they have proved their dramatic lifesaving ability was described today to the American Medical Assn. by Dr. E. Sterling Nichol of Miami, Fla.

In 10 years, probably eight million Americans have been stricken with these heart attacks, he said.

"If anticoagulants had been used in all cases, the death rate would have been reduced from 24 to 16 per cent, which means 640,000 lives might have been saved. Actually, less than one fifth of the cases were treated, but even so at least 100,000 probably have been saved."

The drugs can work if given before, or even after some heart attacks, Dr. Nichol said. The heart attacks often give warning signals, hours or even weeks before the damaging blockade of the heart. Certain pains are a main warning signal.

The drugs must be used carefully, to prevent hemorrhage from too-thin blood, Dr. Nichol cautioned. They and other drugs now are being studied also in thousands of patients as a means of preventing later heart attacks.

In another significant report, Dr. David B. Morgan of Kansas City said certain types of chronic, itchy skin eruptions may often be caused by not eating enough proteins, such as meat, eggs and fish. Bed sores, slow healing of surgical wounds, and some serious skin diseases also can often be benefited by eating more protein, he added.

St. Patrick's Day Holiday Asked in Massachusetts

BOSTON (AP)—Kelly and Burke and Shea want March 17—St. Patrick's Day—as a legal holiday in Massachusetts.

The three Democratic state representatives — James H. Kelly, James R. Burke, both Boston, and John M. Shea, Worcester — parodied Joseph I. Clarke's "The Fighting Race" to call attention to a bill they filed yesterday.

They said:

"When the bill is up for passage, that surely will be the day

"And fighting for enactment, will be Kelly, Burke and Shea."

ORE TONNAGE UP

CONNEAUT, Ohio (AP)—Conneaut Harbor, closing its season with the arrival yesterday of the steamer Benjamin Fairless, received 13,282,414 gross tons iron ore this year—707,411 more than in 1942, the previous record year. Nearby Ashtabula closed its ore season with a total of 10,372,000 tons, topping its 1952 mark by 1½ million tons.

PAIR BOUND OVER

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—Roy Miller and his wife, Annabelle, were bound over to the grand jury yesterday on second-degree murder charges. They pleaded innocent in the Nov. 21 slaying here of Charles H. Wolfe of Kingston. Wolfe died of head injuries.

Baby Sitter Problem Is Solved by Congressman

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Rep. John Jarman (D-Okla) and his wife have found an answer to the high cost of baby sitters.

They've imported one from Switzerland—pretty Janine Mauris 19. Miss Mauris, who speaks French and German fluently, doesn't know a word of English. She wanted to come to the United States as part of her educaton.

In exchiange for her help with the children, the Jarman's will give Janine a native's eye view of the United States—and teach her some Oklahoma-type English.

Among Judging Winners

CHICAGO (AP)—Lester J. Miller of Worthington, Ohio, and Lester S. Reed of Big Prairie (Holmes County), Ohio, were among the winners in Tuesday's national hog judging senior contest held with the International Livestock Exposition here.

Dulles Shies From Open Assault Upon McCarthy

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy can be relied on to muss the hair of anyone who tries to take him on in a knock-down-drag-out fight, with verbal or political weapons. He's proved it.

The Eisenhower administration has been in collision with him a number of times, thwarted him more than once, yielded to him upon occasion, but always has handled him gingerly. Up till now, anyway.

This may have been due to desire for cooperation, genuine liking for him, natural reticence, concern about being mussed up, or fear of splitting the Republican party which might follow an outright split with McCarthy.

While the Wisconsin Republican says the administration's batting average, in a few cases, is zero, the administration can claim it's batted a thousand in one department, at least.

That's in never saying anything unpleasant about McCarthy — directly.

Yesterday Secretary of State Dulles provided a good example of this in a statement which, while unmistakably aimed at McCarthy, never mentioned him by name.

The omission was so obvious that when McCarthy read it he grinned and said: "Do you think he could have been referring to me?"

President Eisenhower himself, by saying he never dealt in personalities, has led the way in avoiding a head-on clash by any direct reference which the senator could take to mean the gloves were off and a fight was on.

Yet, the technique which Dulles used yesterday puts upon newspapermen who covered his news conference the burden of saying Dulles was talking about McCarthy, although Dulles was unwilling to assume the burden himself.

In his broadcast a week ago, hitting both the Democrats and the Eisenhower administration, McCarthy raised the question of how to force the Chinese Communists to release some hundreds of prisoners of war still unaccounted for.

He found the answer in a theme he has been hammering at for months. He suggested this country's allies should end all trade with Red China and said this country should end aid to any ally which didn't.

"Are we going to continue to send perfumed notes, following the style of the Truman-Acheson regime?" he asked.

In his statement Dulles made it clear he was replying to McCarthy's criticism, for he said:

"Since . . . last week there has been a widely publicized criticism of this administration's foreign policy . . . that we spoke too kindly to our allies and sent them 'perfumed' notes . . . The criticism I refer to attacks the very heart of United States foreign policy."

Dulles left no doubt this statement was a deliberate one. He said it had the approval of the President. It had been written and mimeographed before he went to the news conference. He repeated it for movie and television cameras.

Whatever it is that inhibits Dulles—where McCarthy's name is concerned—the senator isn't bothered by it. He's a lot more direct about Dulles than Dulles is about him.

McCarthy suffered his first big setback at the hands of the administration early this year when he tried to block Eisenhower's appointment of Charles E. Bohlen as ambassador to Russia. Bohlen got Senate approval.

But before that happened McCarthy publicly doubted Dulles' word that Bohlen was a good security risk and wanted the secretary to testify all over again but under oath, a procedure which carries a perjury charge for anyone lying.

4 Bars of Bullion Are Recovered but No Owner Located

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Police and U. S. Treasury agents have recovered four gleaming bars of gold bullion, but nobody seems to want to admit he lost them.

"We've got the gold but that's about all," said Paul Hart, agent in charge of the U. S. Secret Service here. The bullion was valued at $2,000.

The gold first was reported stolen from a Denver defense plant, but that theory fizzled. Officers said the bars were being peddled on the black market.

"We figure there is more to this gold business than we have been able to uncover," they said. "However, we were unable to find the owner so we won't be able to hold two suspects any longer."

New Lincolns on Display Tomorrow

NEW 1954 LINCOLNS go on display in Marion Thursday at the Marion Lincoln-Mercury Sales and Service, 202 S. Main St.

Powered by a 205 horsepower V-8 engine, the new cars have been improved mechanically to enhance performance. Some of the motor improvements are: a more flexible single-diaphragm vacuum distributor control, a new venting action for a new, vacuum-controlled four-barrel carburetor, redesigned hydraulic tappets, and a new filter element in the fuel pump.

On the exterior, a wider and lower appearance has been attempted by a new bumper guard air scoop, and the addition of three vertical bars between the upper and lower impact bars.

Front parking lights and turn indicators have been placed in the extreme corners of the front bumper to accent the wider look.

Bumpers also are wrapped around the front end of the car to give a forward thrust look. A new gear gravel shield accents the lowness and length of the car.

As standard equipment on all 1954 models of the Lincoln are back-up lights, built into the regular tail lights.

Gabardine fabrics in the interior are being offered in the Lincolns for the first time this year. Other available upholstery fabrics are whipcords, leather, modern weaves, and spun nylon.

Brakes on the 1954 Lincolns have been increased to 12 inches in diameter. Manufacturers say this will increase the braking area by 10 per cent, to 220 square inches. They claim it will reduce braking effort by one-quarter to one-third.

Buttons, or spacers, have been added between the ribs of tires to muffle the noise of tire squeal when rounding curves. They are designed to minimize the sliding of the outside shoulder ribs when the car rounds a curve.

More rigidity is said to be the result of the addition of a rod on the steering column. The rod extends from the column support to the cowl. In addition, the column support area has been reinforced by adding a brace to the dash and cowl top panels.

Offered as optional equipment are power steering, power brakes, electric window lifts, and four-way power seats. Automatic transmission is standard equipment.

Models offered this year are the Lincoln four-door sedan and "hardtop" coupe, and the Lincoln Capri four-door sedan, "hardtop" coupe, and convertible.

Prince of Peace Talks Scheduled at Bucyrus

BUCYRUS — Crawford County's annual Prince of Peace oratorical contest will be held Sunday night, Dec. 13, at First Baptist Church in Bucyrus, Rev. E. G. Corwin, pastor of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Church at Whetstone and county chairman, announced today.

Only four contestants are entered in the contest to date. They include Joyce Johnson and Barbara Evarts, alternate, both of Whetstone, and Ruth Bradley and Lonny Hinch, alternate, both of Tiro.

AIR COMMUTER

HOLY SPRINGS, Miss. (UP) — Howard R. Cole, an electrician employed at Memphis, Tenn., has solved the commuting problem. He takes off in a pasture back of his home here in a 1940 model Piper Cub and flies the 45 miles to work in 15 or 20 minutes, landing at the Air Force depot where he works.

Number of Women Pilots on Increase

WASHINGTON (UP) — Harriet Quimby didn't know what she started—back in 1911 when she became the first American woman to hold a pilot's license.

Stemming from her first flight, made in the days when women didn't even have the vote, have come flight instructors, crop-dusters, air-taxi pilots, glider pilots—and even helicopter pilots.

Planes, official publication of the Aircraft Industries Association, said that today more than 16,000 U. S. women hold pilots' licenses, five times as many as during World War II, and that number is increasing at an annual rate of about 1,500 per year.

But instead of flying for fun, as did the redoubtable Miss Quimby, most of the modern women pilots are learning to fly for the reason their mothers learned to drive an auto—to get places quicker and return faster.

The publication said the majority of the certified women pilots today hold private licenses—but six have the CAA air transport rating certificate, qualifying them to handle today's huge transport aircraft, five of them are registered as glider pilots, and seven have the newest of all ratings—that of helicopter pilot.

In addition to those who are flying the airways for business or pleasure, there are 3,649 more women holding down jobs which also require CAA certification and are necessary to the nation's civil and military airpower. There are nearly 1,900 female tower operators employed in the federal-controlled airways traffic control towers. Another 1,294 are helping to teach others to fly, holding ground instructors certificates, while 415 are classified as parachute riggers. Another seven are licensed dispatchers and 66 of them hold aircraft and power plant certificates, permitting them to perform all the overhaul required for an aircraft's airworthiness certificate.

When Fort de Chartres, near Prairie du Rocher, Ill., was completed in 1756, it was termed the strongest fortification on the American continent.

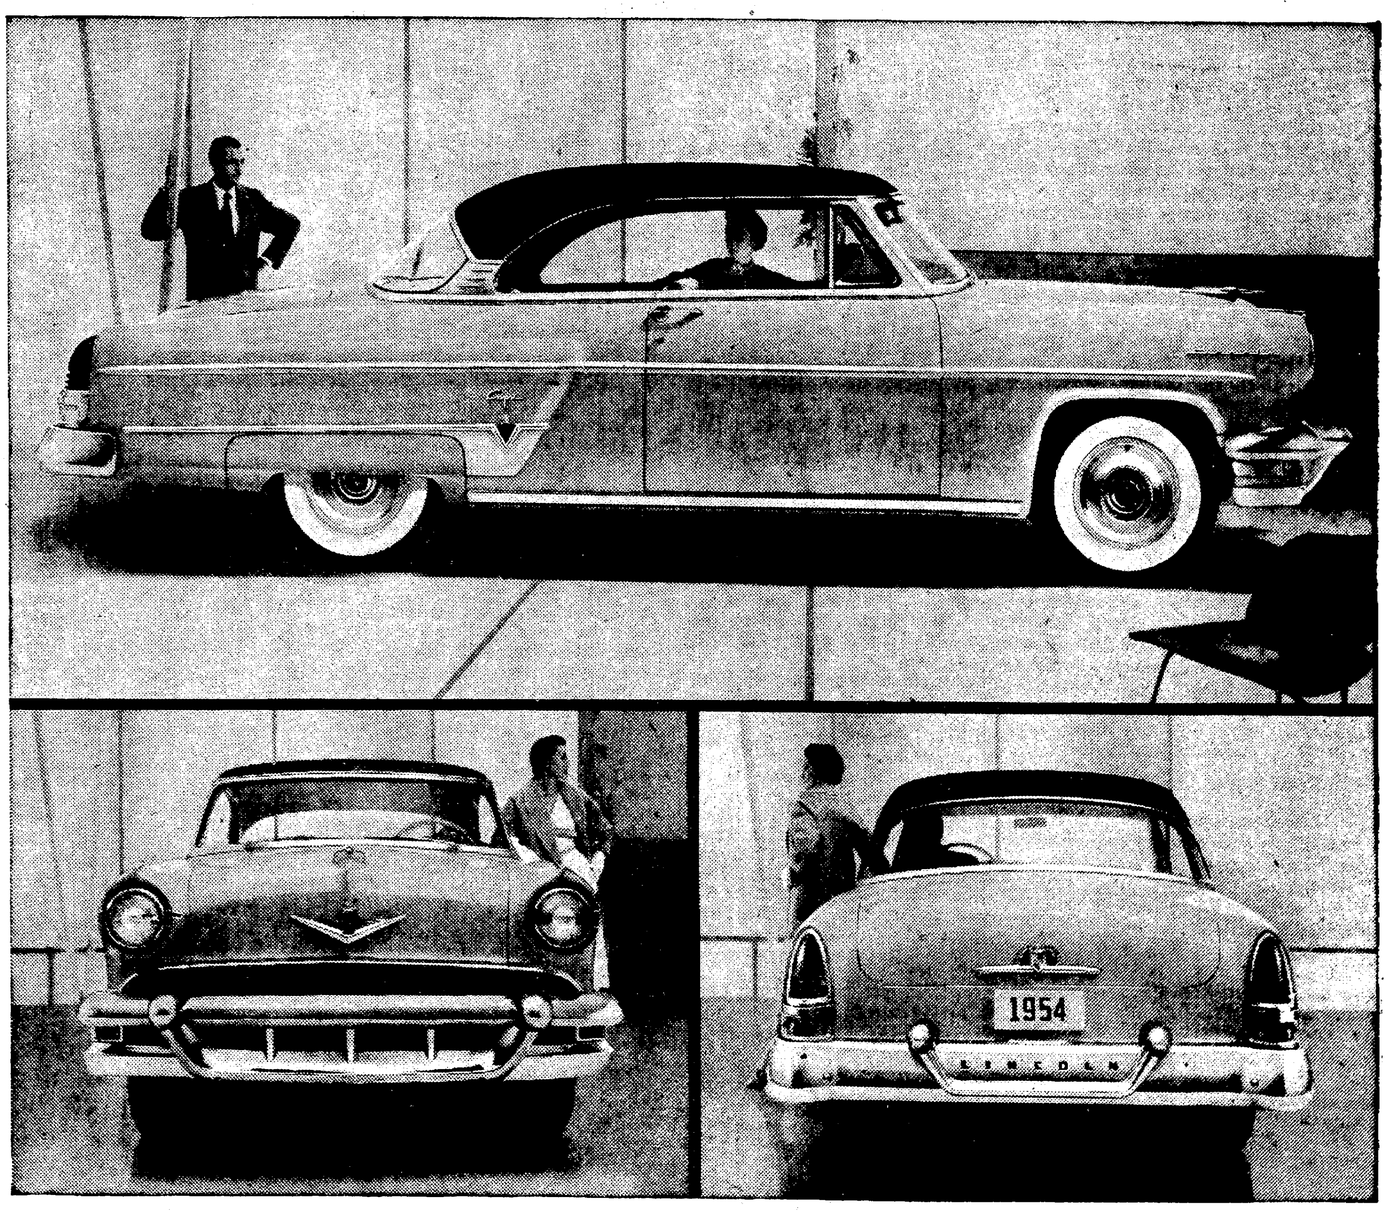
ON DISPLAY TOMORROW—THE NEW
1954 LINCOLN
newly designed for modern living-completely powered for modern driving



IT'S HERE. The newest, most beautiful model of the car that is taking America's motorists into a new era. It is the incomparable new Lincoln for 1954—the one fine car which marks the growing trend to modern living on wheels. In fact, Lincoln fine-car sales have doubled in two short years!

There is distinctive new beauty wherever you look—a new bumper-grille combination, new rear end styling highlighted by new taillights, a longer, lower look all over. Now—you can choose from a wonderful array of colors inside and out, from yellow to black or royal red. You can have rich nylons, broadcloths, gabardines; you can even have genuine leather in four-door sedans!

As for performance, you've never experienced anything like Lincoln's 1954 high-compression engine. One of the world's most efficient power plants, it has been improved with a new 4-barrel carburetor. You'll never believe that an automobile can do so much with so little effort until you try Lincoln's V-8 engine, its new oversize brakes and optional power features. Power steering, power brakes, and 4-way power seat can be yours for the last word in motoring convenience.

Your eyes can tell you that this new 1954 Lincoln has been wonderfully designed for modern living. But you cannot appreciate the effortless action until you try a Lincoln or a Lincoln Capri yourself. Ask us for a demonstration at your convenience.

Don't miss the big television hit, "TOAST OF THE TOWN" with Ed Sullivan. Sunday evening, 8:00 to 9:00. Station WBNS, Channel 10.

Talk Without Hope

Truly, the ways of the diplomat are peculiar.

Having stated certain conditions for a Big Four parley, the diplomat is thrown into a tizzy when the Russians agree to the conditions.

While this could be a backhanded tribute to the Russians' ability to advance their own interests, when diplomats of other governments deliver such tribute it is as though they were hitting themselves in the eye. They are paid to advance their interests in competition with Russian diplomats.

If they didn't want the Russians to accept an invitation to a Big Four parley why did the diplomats of the United States join hands with the diplomats of Great Britain and France to invite them in the first place?

The nations are dangerously close to the point of no return in diplomatic negotiations — when talk without hope has become a waste of time.

The Russians have made a dark science of shattering hope, beginning with their jarring rebukes to peacemakers soon after the end of World War II.

But diplomacy is still the art of winning desired ends without starting a fight. The diplomat is still the last best hope of peacemaking.

Surely, diplomacy outside the Iron Curtain is not inferior to diplomacy inside the Iron Curtain. If the Russians can upset a diplomatic apple cart by agreeing to attend a parley to which they had been invited, it isn't the Russians who need to feel as if they had been caught off base.

Another Kind of Conspiracy

This would be a good time to try to understand what holds the British empire together —now, while Queen Elizabeth II and her handsome consort are on the first leg of a tour which will last until well into next year.

Here is another kind of conspiracy. This kind bears no resemblance to the dark and devious way whereby plotters in the Kremlin seek to increase their influence abroad.

Queen Elizabeth is the central figure in an international effort to widen the influence of the British commonwealth through voluntary identity with a common interest.

There are approximately 611,000,000 people who acknowledge this identity with the commonwealth in varying degrees. They are comprised of groups ranging from tiny fragments of a few hundred persons on remote and unimportant islands to nearly half a billion Asiatics.

It would be begging the question of their allegiance to wonder if they are tied more or less closely than the millions now claimed in the Soviet Union's sphere of influence in Europe and Asia. There is no basis of comparison.

The British commonwealth is held together by common interests, not by force. Its members stay in the Commonwealth by choice, and their choice now is made to seem more desirable by such refinements of civilized persuasion as the radiant charm of a beautiful and gracious young queen.

Queen Elizabeth II must give the conspirators in the Kremlin fits when they think about her impact in the battle for men's minds. She will make more converts in the next two months than a century of party purges and doctrines.

No Settled Farm Opinion

The Eisenhower administration has faithfully carried out the farm program enacted by Congress and will continue to do so, declares Country Gentleman.

In a summary of the administration's record, the magazine points out this significant fact: That while the record, itself, is flawless there is much criticism of the administration based on its open-minded discussion of future farm policy.

The Eisenhower administration is being blamed, in other words, for trying to think ahead. When its spokesmen refer to a point in time when subsidy payments no longer will be an incentive for production of surplus butter—a current problem—and surplus potatoes—a problem of a few years ago its critics raise the roof. Yet, that's what farmers are dreaming of, too.

Country Gentleman points out a further fact of special significance. The decline in the ratio of farm prices to parity began in February, 1951. It finally slowed down early this year and would have stopped had it not been for distress selling of beef cattle as a result of the drought.

The big slide in farm income occurred before Eisenhower became president.

There is, fortunately, no settled farm opinion, as every first-hand investigator learns, sometimes to his surprise. Farmers are not faceless peasants taking their opinions ready-made from self-appointed spokesmen. They think for themselves.

In a recent poll of 14,310 farmers by Ohio Farm Bureau Federation, "it is evident that Ohio farmers are still very much divided in their thinking about the kind of a long-range farm program they wish," according to Everett F. Rittenour, president of the organization.

That may prove to be the understatement of the year.

Invisible Government

By David Lawrence

Pickets Open Way To Strangling Free Press

Freedom of the press vanished in the last few days for most of the newspapers in New York City at the behest of an invisible government—labor-union dictatorship.

What the Constitution of the United States, through the Bill of Rights, is supposed to protect—the right to publish without restraint from any government, visible or invisible — has not been protected.

The Sherman Anti-Trust law, which was passed by Congress in 1890 as a means of preventing "restraint of trade"—that is, a monopoly and any interference with production — was originally intended to cover all restraints of trade.

THE CONGRESS exempted labor unions from its provisions and thereby permitted a conspiracy by a group of labor unions to prohibit publication of newspapers whenever the word goes forth from the leaders of such unions to do so.

Actually there has been no strike as between printers or stereotypers and reporters, on the one hand, and the newspapers, but these employes of the New York newspapers which do have a strike on their hands with the photoengravers refuse to cross picket lines anyway. That ties up production completely.

Each of the newspapers has contracts with various unions that are not themselves parties to the strike, but nowadays it is apparently more important for union members 'to respect picket lines" than it is to respect contracts.

THERE IS evidently no protection for an employer against the conspiracy of several unions to violate contracts with the excuse that they don't want to cross picket lines.

Neither the Taft-Hartley Act nor its predecessor, the Wagner Act, makes it unlawful for a labor union to refuse to cross a picket line where there is a strike going on. Thus, the law of the land permits, by its exemptions or omissions, the strangling of a free press.

Certainly it was never intended that a few labor - union leaders could do what the government itself cannot do — prevent newspapers from publishing.

The problem is not novel. It affects all sorts of businesses which have no way to protect themselves against heavy losses whenever any one of a number of unions decides to tie up production in a plant.

THE PRESS, however, has considered itself immune from interference with publication because of the Bill of Rights, and yet no newspaper has ever sought to carry a case to the courts on the ground that labor unions—utilizing powers granted by Congress with respect to compulsory collective bargaining and the "union shop" — are in effect depriving the press of their freedom to publish.

The right of the members of any union as individuals to quit work as an exercise of economic power is always conceded, but the right of the employer to be protected in his contracts with other unions so that they may not close down his plant is just as inviolate.

There is no constitutional right to call a strike or to persuade members of unions to quit work. A concerted action by union officers to order a work stoppage is not inherent in the Constitution.

THE COURTS have decided this when the government has seized properties and ordered strikers to return to work.

The right of unions to operate at all and to order their members to quit work is one that only the laws of the land have granted. It can be taken away at any time that the Supreme Court of the United States may decide that a conspiracy to stop the newspapers from publishing is a violation of the Bill of Rights of the Constitution itself.

The New York newspaper strike emphasizes the need for amendments to the anti-trust laws taking away from the unions their present immunity from suit. They can be made amenable to law whenever they exercise monopoly power far beyond their own membership and extend their authority into other unions and other lines of business.

No true "liberal" can remain silent on what has just happened in New York and consistentaly claim hereafter to be a champion of constitutional rights in America.

Can Spring Be Far Behind?

By TRUMAN TWILL

Yesterday we rounded up the lambs that go to market. There were only six that will be converted into lamb chops this year, as once more the demand exceeds the supply.

The roundup was part of the preparation for the rustling of spring. Or to get down to fundamentals, it was time once more for Sam the Ram to look to the future.

If everything goes all right, there should be at least 30 lambkins arriving at the Twillery with the flowers next May. There should be a scene of wild and wonderful confusion in the sheepfold as young matrons, middle - aged matrons and seasoned old-timers take up the arduous duties of motherhood.

No one who has gone through this can forget it. With the exception of poultrymen accustomed to thousands of chicks and ducklings all coming into being at the same time, no one has more excitement to look forward to than the custodian of a flock of sheep at lambing time.

By the same token, since lambing time occurs in the spring, no one has more to look forward to during gloomy winter days than an optimistic sheepman.

As the winter solstice is approached and passed, as January thaws and February fulminates, as March and April wear themselves out in spasms of rain and snow, the great day is steadily approaching when the sheepfold will be full of tottering lambs with shoe - button eyes staring out of astonished faces at a world of wonders.

Within a day, the totterers will have found their co - ordination and will be galloping stiff - legged through the spring flowers. It's one of nature's most wonderful spectacles and always worth waiting for.

When winter comes and it's time once more to round up the lambchops it's always hard to realize that a struggling armful of rambunctious dissension was a sweet-faced lambkin a few months ago.

We hope our former schoolmate who dropped by to put on blue jeans and help with the roundup will avail himself of a standing invitation to drop by again next May and look at some new lambs.

For a beginner, he didn't do badly. He hit the deck only once while the two of us put the shepherd's lock on upward of 20 candidates for inspection and selection. But he went home with the wrong idea about lambs.

Anyone with his arms wrapped around the middle of 70 - odd pounds of determined, squirming and resourceful energy is bound to get wrong ideas about innocence and gentleness.

But now the cycle is back to the old place where hope is renewed and spring is just around the calendar. The old lamb crop has been harvested. The new crop will be bigger, better and livelier. It will be innocent and gentle.

The trouble is that the shepherds will be a year older when it's time to run down the next crop and will have to linger longer on the hayrack while picking out the next candidate for market.

Only Guilty Need Fear Wire-Tapping

By Raymond Moley

Judith Coplon, who was, according to the evidence as evaluated by the courts of the United States, guilty of giving material entrusted to her as an employe of the government to an agent of the Soviet, is living in complete freedom.

She has escaped just punishment for her offense because the Circuit Court of Appeals declared that her conviction in the lower courts could not stand because some of the leads which led to it came from wire tapping.

This contemptible creature has enjoyed every advantage of life, even her present undeserved freedom, because of the country she conspired to betray.

SHE ENJOYED a first - class education under the auspices of a capitalistic system. She received in college what amounted to gratuitous education.

She received from the government a job almost immediately paying more than those of full professors in the college from which she graduated.

I asked a professor who knew her in college what seemed to be the matter with her there. He said that she complained that "nobody loved her."

In her case it would seem that the country she betrayed loved her to the point of blind indulgence.

The attorney-general proposes that others of her ilk shall not enjoy the blessings of liberty simply because Congress failed in 1934 to pass a crookproof Communications Act.

THAT ACT provides that:

"No person not authorized by the sender shall intercept any communication and divulge or publish its existence, contents, or the substance of such intercepted communications to any person."

This is a sound law in the generality of cases and occasions.

The attorney-general does not propose to change it except to permit the introduction in court of evidence obtained by wire tapping in cases involving national security and defense; and in cases where wire tapping is done, there shall be written permission to the FBI by the attorney-general.

NO CONSTITUTIONAL question is involved in the present prohibition of the use of wire-tapping in the Olmstead case in 1928.

In 1940, President Roosevelt authorized wire tapping, and it is being done continually by the FBI.

The evidence thus obtained can be used for the removal of persons as security risks and for other purposes, but it cannot be used to convict a person of a crime in the federal courts.

Wire-tapping evidence is admissable in the courts of 30 states in state cases.

The argument against the permission now requested by the attorney-general are of the same character as those used whenever there is proposed any weakening of the safeguards of the accused in criminal cases.

THEY SUGGEST those which were always used when it was proposed to let state judges comment upon evidence in the manner permitted to federal judges.

Most of such objections are footed in fear of possible executive tyranny. But in fact much of the power now exercised by executive authority could be misused by bad people in government.

There are some, like former Judge Thurman Arnold, who indulge in absurd exaggerations. Arnold, who has always been a wild and windy user of language, says that if this legislation is passed, "everybody" will be afraid to use a telephone.

The late Justice Holmes once declared that wire tapping was "dirty business."

IT IS DIRTY business always to track down dirty people But it must be done if good people are to be safe.

For the life of me, I cannot see why there is any difference in essence in the use of evidence heard by eavesdropping on a telephone wire or through a keyhole or from table to table in a saloon.

The practical fact that only an infinitely small number of telephones could be tapped should dispose of any general fear.

In the final analysis only the guilty and the abnormally sensitive can fear such a threat. An honest man is just as honest over a telephone as anywhere else.

Murder Mysteries

By Frank Tripp

Every problem posed by progress gets solved somehow. Yet sometimes, looking into the future, they seem insurmountable. I'm beginning to fret about where all of the mystery thrillers are going to come from.

Television is exposing plots on an average of six a day; which threatens that ere long the morgues could be bare, all the way back to Conan Doyle and Gaboriau. The Erle Stanley Gardners, Ellery Queens, George Coxes, et al., will have to step up production.

SOME PEOPLE cast slurs at the mystery fans. Even there are dyed in the wool devotees who hide their liking for the blood curdlers. They keep their quarter whodunit in their bedroom for late night reading and hide it inside a newspaper when on trains. For why?

You'd be amazed to know how many famous and learned people turn to the detective story for diversion and mental relaxation, and have from the days of Nick Carter.

ALSO YOU'D be surprised if all of the successful writers who have tried to write athriller would confess that they never dared show their single miserable effort to their most intimate friend. It's a trade by itself.

Still it looks like such a cinch; this business of fooling readers by holding back the evidence. I never wrote one, nor tried; which makes me exactly the guy to tell you how it's done; being an authority by reason of never having failed at something. I never tried. Amazing how often that's the definition of an "expert."

FOND PARENTS who ponder the future of their children might consider a mystery career, along with medicine, engineering and the sciences; and universities might draw trade with a shocker course and a degree.

Because, and don't be fooled, there's a vast and growing audience. People want to be puzzled and scared.

Until such time as other instruction is available, I'm glad to be able to get you or your hopeful off on the right foot, toward fame and shekels no end.

YOU DO IT like this: Find a beautiful blonde, strangled. The scene? Any place where you can get two chapters out of a description of the stairs, the furniture and the wall paper. You can buy these two chapters ready made if you'd rather.

The lethal weapon is a man's necktie; a mite trite, but you can have this one different; say it was bought at Macy's in 1898. Clue number one.

Inspector Popeye remembers that the Spanish-American War broke out in 1898. Thus you cleverly avoid time-absorbing deduction. This narrows the investigation down to Macy's necktie counter and the United States Army.

WHAT SOLDIER, off for Cuba, bought a blue necktie at Macy's in 1898? That'll puzzle 'em. Nobody knows but you, the author. You only need conceal your secret until Page 204.

There'll be plenty to fill the preceding 203 pages; such as 55 years of Macy sales slips, six million GIs with blue neckties; how you know this one was bought in 1898, and how it got around the neck of a blonde who wasn't born until 1930. The possibilities are enormous.

BUT THESE items are mere details, not properly the function of an instructor to reveal. There's where your bid for fame reposes. Just take any ordinary situation like this one, solve it, write the story backwards—and you're in.

Although an expert on plots, as you can see, I'm also (and no kiddin') one of the millions who love 'em, and will be watching the pulp racks and soap operas for your crash to glory.

Good luck—and happy murdering!

Marion County History Brevities

By EDNA S. DUTTON

Ira Uhler, native of Pennsylvania, was a pioneer merchant of Marion, coming here to establish a dry goods business in 1855. The firm name for several years was Johnson, Uhler & Company. Later Mr. Uhler formed a partnership with Daniel Yake, under the name of Yake & Uhler. This partnership was dissolved in 1884. In 1891 Mr. Uhler was one of the organiers of the drygoods business of Uhler, Phillips & Company. His death occurred six weeks later. The firm name continued without change until 1900 when it was changed to Uhler & Phillips.

Daily Bible Thought

We should honor men with courage to denounce wrong in high places.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

No Place Like Home

Andrei Vishinsky is moving into a swanky residence among New York's elite bought for him by Russia. He will reside in a $150,000 residence in the Sixties just off Park Avenue. This gves him an ideal location among the capitalists he despises so heartly, and a commanding view of the rich from every floor.

On a clear day he can go to the roof and get a view of almost everything except the masses.

The house has twenty rooms, about ten more than the Wall Street targets of Andrei can afford. . . . It was built by J. William Clark, an American thread king. He never dreamed the commies would one day be doing their knitting there.

Walter Mack, soft drink czar, occupied it for a time, and he winces at the picture of "Five full ounces, that's a lot" running through the joint in Russian.

More lately the residence was owned by L. A. Lincoln, head of Metropolitan Life. . . . Mr. Lincoln was at first reluctant to sell to the Kremlin . . . (But it was one of the few cases where an insurance man was talked out of something.)

-:-

The foremost excoriator of America and its people has been living in the spacious Pratt estate at Glen Cove. He will miss the more luxurious interiors and the expansive gardens but takes the attitude: "Oh, well, you can't have everything."

The Russians are doing well in the matter of smart living in this country, and money is no object even in moments when berating those who have it. . . But why grouse?

When a Russian comes home from a hard day's work denouncing those who seek the comforts of life, he likes to relax in complete luxury and dream up his next excoriation of the rich in an atmosphere of opulence.

"Life With Father" is being played on TV as if it were "Life With Dracula."

The Republicans have an answer to Adlai Stevenson's crack that the Democrats aim for a golf score of 108—out in 52, back in 56. . . . They say they will settle for a total of 141 (out in 33, and back in 53 plus 56), and that it will win because after being off the fairway for twenty years they are entitled to a handicap of fifty strokes.

Possible dramatic castings: Elizabeth Bentley in "A Girl Can Tell." President Eisenhower in "Gently Does It." Attorney-General Brownell (with a glance at Justice Clark): "Wish You Were Here." Joe McCarthy: "Spies and Dolls." Jim Byrnes: "I Remember Dexter." J. Edgar Hoover: "Take a Giant Step." Harry Truman: "The Bear Trapper." Senator Jenner; "Can-Can."

Exploratory huddles on bars in New York theaters are being held. . . . A lot of folks favor them, mainly as affording relief from those numerous actors who do it all in pantomime. They can at least HEAR what a bartender says. . . . Possible play review of tomorrow:

I found the play inadequate,
It missed the mark by far,
But this I find I cannot say
At all about the BAR.
The autor seemed a brainless guy—
Hiss offering lacked fun;
The BAR I though had power and
Is destined for a RUN.

In Palm Springs seventy-five homes will see a TV pay-as-you-look movie, dropping a coin into a slot on the TV set and getting a complete cinema show. Before long this will be commonplace, and we are working now on a TV set which will have not only coin slots but a beer spigot, a hot-dog unit and a deep-freeze that will take care of commercials.

News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO—It was Thursday, Dec. 2, 1943.

President Roosevelt, Marshal Stalin and Prime Minister Churchill were reported conferring in the Persian capital of Teheran on a supreme drive to crush Germany before winter fell.

The B. F. Goodrich Co. announced in Akron the location of a manufacturing plant in Marion to make "certain war products." A two-story brick building at the southeast corner of N. Main and George Sts. had been selected as the plant site.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Bucklew of 629 E. Mark St.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll W. Davidson of 610 Pearl St. had returned from Pittsburgh, Pa., where they visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Davidson and family.

Commons Backs Churchill's New Housing Program

LONDON (AP)—The House of Commons last night approved in principle the Conservative government's new housing program aimed at halting deterioration of Britain's six million rent - controlled homes and starting clearance of slum areas.

The lawmakers backed the measure on second reading by a 309-282 vote shortly before Prim Minister Churchill left London for the Big Three conference in Bermuda. The measure was sent to committee for final revision before its third and last reading in the House, a formality.

The most controversial feature of the bill, hotly opposed by the opposition Labor party, gives permission for landlords to raise rents provided the added income is earmarked for repairs and maintenance.

Dallas Detectives' Search Incomplete

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Two Dallas detectives sheepishly admitted they failed to make a complete investigation.

The pair, J. M. Souter and G. D. Gandy, picked up a 30-year-old woman, hauled her off to jail and booked her for carrying a concealed revolver — in her coat pocket.

That was just the half of it, they admitted yesterday.

Fifteen minutes later Jail Matron Ellie P. Eady sent down a second pistol to the desk sergeant. This one had been concealed in the prisoner's brassiere.

HIT BY CAR, DIES

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Sixty nine-year-old Lawrence Street of Zanesville died yesterday of injuries suffered when struck by a car. The accident occurred Nov. 24.

Farmer Fails To Send Son to School, Is Fined

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP) — Fred Drury, 50, a farmer who doubles as a school bus driver, has been fined $50 because his boy is delinquent in attending classes. He was charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The defendant told the court he needed his son, Ira, to help run the 100-acre farm.

MRS. THOMAS C. KNICKEL

Marriage Unites Peggy Daugherty, Thomas C. Knickel

White chrysanthemums and four seven-branch candelabra formed the setting Sunday, Nov. 22, at Zion Evangelical and Reformed Church, Prospect, when Peggy Evelyn Daugherty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Daugherty, became the bride of Thomas Coleman Knickel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Knickel of near Richwood. Rev. Eugene T. Henzel performed the double ring ceremony at 2:30 in the afternoon.

A half-hour of nuptial music preceded the ceremony. Mrs. Irma Wottring was organist, and Mrs. Carl Oehler, sister of the bride, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over satin. The collar was embroidered with seed pearls and sequins and the fitted bodice was trimmed down the front with little buttons. The sleeves formed points over the hands. Her finger-tip veil of illusion was attached to a matching lace cap. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Sherman Biggerstaff, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor and wore a gown of deep purple with bodice of velvet and the skirt fashioned of layers of nylon net over taffeta.

Bridesmaid was Miss Mary Jo Knickel, also a sister of the bridegroom, in a strapless gown of orchid. The bodice was of taffeta and net and the bouffant skirt was of nylon net over taffeta.

The bride's sister, Carolyn, was junior bridesmaid and wore a gown of lavender taffeta over crinoline.

Mrs. Paul Rogers Jr., and Miss Sue Russell, in gowns of lavender lighted the candles.

Best man for Mr. Knickel was Earnest Gast and ushers were Sherman Biggerstaff and Carl Oehler, brothers-in-law of the couple.

A reception followed in the parish house of the church. The bridal table, covered in white damask, was decorated with arrangements of shattered chrysanthemums and centered by a three tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom. Serving were Mrs. Earnest Gast, Mrs. Otto Knickel, Mrs. Robert Dunbar, Miss Norma Jean Ward, Miss Dixie Swihart and Miss Annabelle Cameron.

When the couple left for a motor trip through the south, Mrs. Knickel wore a blue suit with blue accessories and the roses from her corsage. They will reside in Prospect after their return.

The bride is a graduate of Prospect High School with the class of 1951 and is employed at the Marion Engineer Depot. The bridegroom is a graduate of Prospect High School with the class of 1949 and is engaged in farming.

At the rehearsal party given by the bridegroom's parents on Saturday evening, the couple presented the members of the bridal party with gifts.

Guests were from Charleston, W. Va., Columbus, Toledo, Urbana, Springfield, Richwood, Fulton and Marion.

Lincoln Now Is Subject Of Anthropology Study

WASHINGTON (UP)—Abraham Lincoln is now a subject for anthropologists.

The rangy, Civil War president was not quite as robust as reported, according to a study by Dr. T. D. Stewart of the Smithsonian Institution's division of physical anthropology.

Lincoln stood six-feet-four, but Stewart claims he was slender of build, with narrow feet, and somewhat below average in size for men of his height. This study was made from original masks now on display at the U. S. National Museum.

Social Security Director Says Some May Be Missing Benefits

A reminder that many people may be losing social security payments because they don't realize they fulfill the legal definition of retirement was issued today by Patil B. Snider, manager of the Marion social security office.

Snider pointed out that under the "retirement test" of the social security law many people between the ages of 65 and 75 can receive benefit payments even though they are still working.

The retirement test has two provisions, one pertaining to wages earned by employes and the other to the income of self-employed persons.

Under the law persons between 65 and 75 are considered retired and eligible for benefits when their wages do not exceed $75 per month in an employment covered by social security. Wages earned in employments not coming under the social security law do not count.

In applying this provision, each month is considered seperately and wages can not be averaged over the entire year.

The retirement test provision for the self-employed differs from the one for employes in that the self-employed are allowed average monthly earnings of $75 for the entire tax year.

If net earnings for self-employment do not exceed $900 for the year, the person may be entitled to social security payments for each month of the year. If the net earnings are from $900 to $1,725 during the year, the self-employed persons may be entitled to one or more benefit payments.

Snider also pointed out that a person who receives income from a trade or business which he owns but does not actively operate or manage is considered retired. He is entitled to benefit payments, no matter what the amount of income, as long as he is so retired.

The social security law also provides that when a person reaches the age of 75 he is entitled to benefit payments regardless of the amount of his income from wages or self-employment.

Snider urged persons who meet the retirement tests or have any questions on social security to contact the local social security office at 127 W. Church St. The office is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. from Monday through Friday.

DAVIS, Calif. (UP)—Agricultural economists at the University of California campus here have undertaken to study the costs of converting the state's brushland into meat-producing rangeland.

Marion Man Promoted

Forest Glen Massie of Green Bay, Wis., formerly of Marion was recently promoted to the position of manager of the Lowe Brothers Paint Store in Green Bay. Massie, who is 24, is the youngest manager in the paint company's store system.

He was graduated from arding High School in 1947. He and Mrs. Massie, the former Ilene Bender, have two children, a daughter, Terri G., and a son, Forest Craig.

TRUE TO TYPE

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UP) — The young man was hungry, jobless and needed help, he told Rev. James Garvin. He was asked to wait in the minister's office while Rev. Garvin took care of some other business. When the minister returned, the young man was gone —along with an office typewriter.

DOUBLE LOSS

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (UP) — No recount has been ordered despite a cry of "I was robbed" by a defeated political candidate. Shortly after Harry Gaetano lost out at the polls, gunmen made off with $30 from his service station.

Farm Bureau Hears Bricker On Tariff Issue

Opposes Reductions On Wool, Minerals, Ohio Senator Declares

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Farm Bureau Federation closes its three day meeting here today with decisions regarding the group's 1954 policies.

Among yesterday's speakers were Sen. John W. Bricker (R—Ohio) and Farm Bureau president Everett F. Rittenour.

Bricker, recently returned from a South American tour, said South American countries are seeking reduction of U.S. tariffs on minerals and wool. He said he opposes such reductions.

The senator said lowering of those tariffs to allow greater South American competition in American markets would reduce production and therefore purchasing power in the West and South. Farm surpluses then would continue to pile up, he asserted.

Rittenour said the world's greatest problem is production of enough food for people to eat.

"Until we raise the standard of living of all the peoples of the world, they are going to look upon us in the United States with envy, and under incitement of the Communists, are likely to attack us," he said.

The Farm Bureau president said he doesn't believe the Soviet Union will attack the United States because:

"So many Russians are engaged in farm production that not enough are left to produce consumer goods and war materials needed for a world-wide struggle . . .

A. R. Wadsworth of Malvern, Carroll County, was elected to a three-year term as a state trustee.

Youth Held to Crawford Jury on Morals Charge

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS — Richard Deer, 18, of Mansfield, has been held to Crawford County grand jury on a charge of indecent exposure, Sheriff Elwood F. Jacobs reported here today. He is being held in the county jail here after being unable to furnish bond of $500.

The sheriff said Derr was arrested by sheriff's department on a warrant issued by Justice of Peace C. F. Dickinson at Crestline. Deer entered a plea of innocent at his arraignment before Dickinson Saturday.

The charges were filed by Mrs. Marjorie Cook of near Crestline. The warrant charges that Derr stepped out of his car completely naked while it was parked near Crestline last week.

Celebration Marks Two Anniversaries Of Radnor Church

A double celebration at the Radnor Baptist Church recently marked the 137th anniversary of the congregation and the 50th anniversary of dedication of the present church building. Attending the dinner and special program were more than 100 members and guests. Present were more than 20 who had attended the dedication in 1903.

Climax of the program was burning of a $35,000 note on redecoration and remodeling of the church. George Pugh, president of the Prospect Citizens Bank officiated, assisted by Mrs. James Thomas, president of the Missionary Society. The former, present at the original dedication, gave remarks recalling that occasion. A history of the church compiled by W. L. Williams, church treasurer for 55 years was included on the souvenir program leaflet. The Radnor congregation assisted in founding six other Baptist churches including those at Delaware, Ostrander, Prospect, and Richwood.

Speaker was Rev. George Reed, pastor of the Springdale Baptist Church who was ordained in the Radnor Church in 1925. Music was by the George Thomas quartet of Prospect. Mrs. Thomas, the pianist, was the first person baptized in the present Radnor Church, in 1904. Giving greetings as a representative of the Radnor community was Rev. L. A. Lippitt of the Congregational Church. Remembrance gifts were presented 50-year members. Rev. Thomas Gibbony is present pastor of the congregation of 145 members.

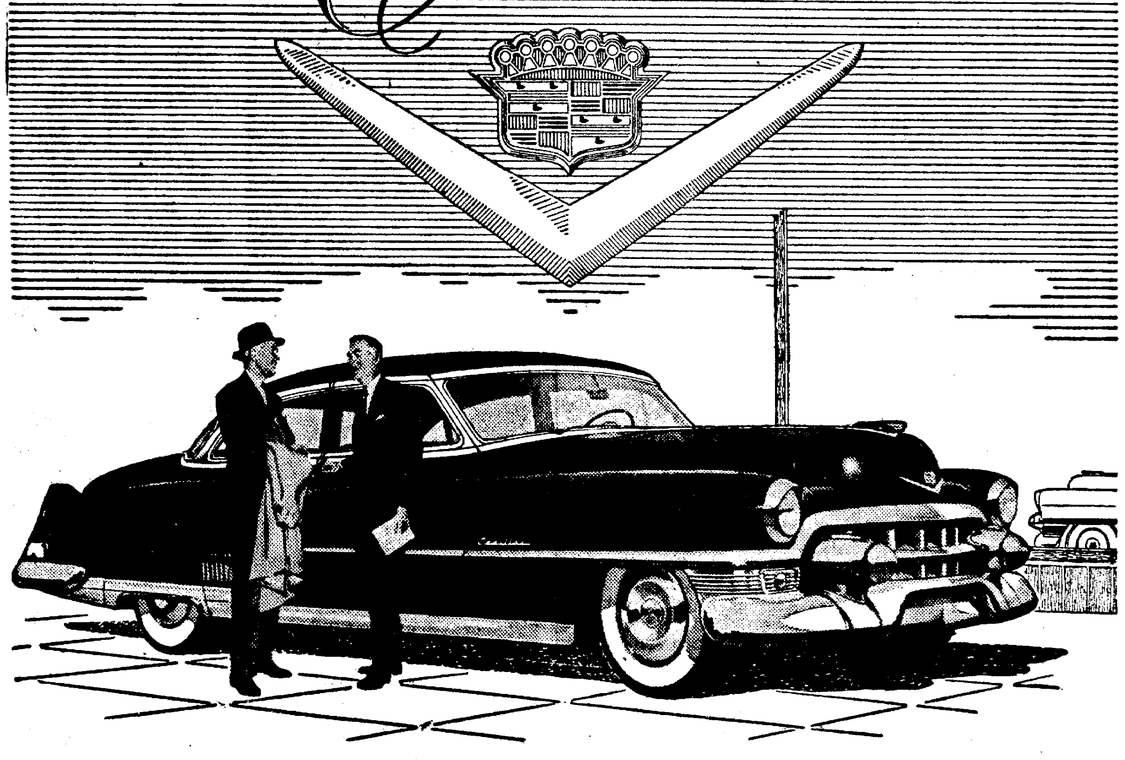
Cadillac



Come In and Order One...Today!

Of course, any day is a wonderful day for stepping up to Cadillac.

When the magic moment arrives in a man's life when he feels entitled to the "car of cars," he should make the move without hesitation—regardless of year, or season, or any other consideration.

But we do feel, in all honesty, that the motorist who finds himself in that happy circumstance this fall is particularly fortunate.

For Cadillac has never offered so many wonderful things, in such abundant measure, as it does today.

It is supremely beautiful—with grace and dignity and majesty that set it instantly apart from the rest of the world's motor cars.

Its performance is simply breath-taking—even when measured against Cadillac's own extraordinary standards. And the car is luxurious and distinctive and pride-inspiring far beyond its illustrious predecessors.

In addition to all this, the current Cadillac creation is unbelievably practical to own and economical to operate. The lowest-priced Cadillac, for instance, now costs less than twenty-two different models of other makes of motor cars manufactured in America.

And you can ride out a normal, full day's journey on a single tankful of gasoline.

As if this were not sufficient to set it apart, a Cadillac car—according to an authoritative study of used car prices—may be expected to return a greater percentage of its owner's original investment at the time of resale than any other motor car in the land!

So—if you are considering a Cadillac for yourself and your family—come in and order one today!

It's the right thing to do—and it's the right time to do it.

First Christmas Trees Arrive in City

AMONG THE FIRST CHRISTMAS TREES to arrive in Marion this year were 4,200 which will be sold by the Y Men's Service Club. The trees were brought in Monday night. Here club members William Collins, Harold Henry and Floyd Wilhelm (left to right) begin the job of unpacking them at Greenwood School. Proceeds of the sale will be used for charitable purposes. Trees will be sold continuously until Christmas. A watchman will be on duty at all times to serve customers. Members of the club will help in the sale during the evenings.

Elevator

Court was without jurisdiction in the matter of the elevator, Carhart cited Ohio statutes that give the Board of County Commissioners the responsibility of the construction of a courthouse and "what shall go into it." Along with this idea, the prosecuting attorney brought to the court's attention that an elevator was not in the plans when the courthouse was constructed.

—:—

ATTORNEY Howard Guthery, representing the Bar Association committee, told the court that the committee "took the position that Common Pleas Court has the inherent power to order facilities for the proper functioning of the court."

"What is an elevator but a piece of equipment and a facility for the use of the court?" he asked the jurists, adding that an elevator is "a necessary facility in this day and age."

Citing two state Supreme Court cases, Guthery emphasized that the main purpose of a courthouse, as its name implies, is for the functioning of courts and secondarily, when space permits, for the housing of other county offices.

Pointing out the court has the inherent power to order furniture and require Commissioners to pay for the furniture, or be held liable in court action for its payment, Guthery compared an elevator to the jurists' bench, saying "there is no difference."

REFERRING to the county's objection to the manner in which the courthouse elevator's necessity was brought to the attention of the court, the Bar Association attorney pointed out that the committee did not even have to do this.

In fact, the attorney maintained, Judge Smith, if he deemed it necessary, could have ordered the installation of the elevator without the hearing. Guthery further contended that this appeals court "can almost take judicial notice of the necessity of an elevator."

In his concluding arguments for the county, Carhart informed the court that "if the money were available, the county commissioners would have installed an elevator in the building."

He also referred to a one-half mill levy, designed to provide money for an elevator's installation, which was defeated by voters in the November general election.

Marion Church Leader Named To Attend Conference in Alaska

A Marion Methodist layman, Robert F. Williams of 145 Johnson St., has been invited to participate in a Visitation Evangelistic program for Alaska next Feb. ruary.

Mr. Williams, a member of Epworth Methodist Church, has accepted the invitation, his participation being approved by the official board of Epworth Church at a meeting last night.

The Alaska evangelistic program is being sponsored by the General Board of Evangelism in cooperation with the Division of National Missions of the General Board of Missions of the Methodist Church.

It has been determined that on the basis of a similar experience two years ago and the prayerful preparation and expectancy of preachers and laymen in Alaska, it might be possible to double the church membership in Alaska through such a mission. Twenty ministers and laymen from various parts of the United States will make up the crusade team.

The mission has been scheduled for Feb. 10-24. Tentative plans are for the group to meet at the Olympic Hotel in Seattle, Wash., on Feb. 10 with a day of briefing to follow. On Feb. 12, the group will leave for Alaska, meet with church committees there the next day, and then from Feb. 14-21 branch out for preaching and visitation. On Feb. 22 they will go to Anchorage for a mass meeting and return to Seattle on Feb. 24. Travel from Seattle and in Alaska will be by air.

Active in planning the mission

ROBERT F. WILLIAMS
To Represent Marion Church

are Dr. P. Gordon Gould of Philadelphia, Pa., superintendent and director of the Division of National Missions, and Dr. Joseph H. Edge of Nashville, Tenn., associate secretary of the General Board of Evangelism of the Methodist Church.

Mr. Williams has been active in Epworth Church a number of years. He is a lay speaker of the quarterly conference of the church, has been a teacher of a young peoples class many years. He is known for his Bible teaching, speaking to various church organizations and Masonic orders, and has lectured often on "Symbols of Religion."

Betts

are interested in a solution rather than partisan consideration," Betts said.

In developing the topic, "Your Congressman Looks At The Farm Problem," the former Ohio House speaker called attention to the fact that laws passed not only effect the Eighth District but the whole country and American economy is important to the whole world. "We must not only think of the farm group but all other groups such as the wage earner, the business group and the manufacturing group," Betts said.

Presents Review

Representative Betts reviewed the complexity of the problems of all segments of United States economic system and showed how each was interested in the problem of keeping the United States alive, strong, stable and balanced so that part of it "will not get out of control and lead to deflation or inflation." He cited the objective of maintaining the wage level to keep the family interested to preserve their segment of economy at a proper level to balance with the nation's economy.

"Write your congressman and express your views," urged the Eighth District congressman. "It is the only way of our knowing what you want," he said. "Have your organization pass resolutions signed by the officers and sent in. These resolutions for the betterment of conditions and solving of problems will be considered seriously and conscientiously," Betts concluded.

McCarthy told a nationwide radio and television audience last week that Communism would be an issue and that the question of continuing his hunt for subversives would be the main issue in the election of a Republican Congress.

Dulles refused to say he was talking about McCarthy, but he used some of the senator's own words and thus left no doubt as to his target.

ger and emerged with a new, vigorous lease on life.

IT HAPPENED this way: Nathan Gregory Silvermaster was one of the most courageous, productive and versatile agents in the entire Washington setup. To make him even more useful, the Russian secret police representatives decided he should be taken out of the Farm Security Administration and placed in a more strategic post.

With the help of Currie, who became Roosevelt's adviser on Far Eastern affairs, and of Harry Dexter White, the Treasury official, Silvermaster was transferred from the Farm Security Administration to the Board of Economic Warfare, where he became head of the Middle East division.

Six months later, the blow struck. A letter from General Strong, head of Army Intelligence, was sent to Silvermaster's superior stating that the FBI, the Office of Naval Intelligence and other police agencies on the West Coast had discovered that Silvermaster was a Communist and was disloyal to the United States.

SILVERMASTER, ordinarily calm and fearless, was shaken and distraught. Unable to decide on a course of action, he was advised by his and my superiors in the Soviet secret police to sit tight. Meanwhile, he was told to contact Currie and White.

These two officials, using all the power of their high offices, brought pressure to bear upon Undersecretary of War Robert E. Patterson while the entire espionage system virtually held its breath.

The results were gratifying.

After about three months of interminable waiting, Patterson directed the War Department to cancel its demands for Silvermaster's dismissal and the ace spy was permitted to return to the Farm Security Administration with absolutely no official blemish on his record.

Another time, Currie sent word to Silvermaster, who was his personal friend, that the Americans had just broken a Soviet code. When this red-hot information was transmitted to the Russians, they, naturally, were burning to discover what code it was that was no longer useful to them.

FOR WEEKS, it was our job to try to find out about the code, but this was one time we were unable to fulfill the Russians' demands.

I began the Washington phase of my undercover work for the Communists when Jacob Golos, the powerful American Communist and member of the Russian secret police with whom I was in love, told me he wanted me to undertake the contact work for the espionage groups operating there.

I agreed, of course, despite Golos' warning that I was beginning a dangerous assignment.

Actually, I had already been acting as a courier for information emanating from Washington, but on a secondary level. I had been put in contact with Mary Price, a veteran Communist who was the secretary of Walter Lippmann.

Mary would ransack the files of Lippmann's Washington office and extract whatever she thought would be useful to the Russian intelligence agents.

Mary proved useful, too, when I traveled to Washington to pick up my biweekly haul of stolen documents. It was too dangerous for me to register at a hotel where the FBI could note the regularity of my visits and I frequently stayed overnight at Mary's apartment.

MARY, INCIDENTALLY, like Lee, was given to recurrent frights and fears, always imagining that sooner or later the FBI would crack down on her. Whenever I found her in one of these moods, I would take her out, wine and dine her, give her a pep talk about the importance of the work she was doing and inspire her with new confidence.

I, too, had my fears about the FBI, but I had learned to master them and I became adept at using evasive techniques.

The burden of my work was heavy, almost crushing. Not only was I a courier, but I also had become an executive of World Tourists, which had been established by the Communist party as a cover and as a means of sending tourists to Russia.

I also was an executive of the U. S. Service & Shipping Corporation, which had been organized by Golos to take over some of the activities of World Tourists.

Except for my personal association with Golos, I had no life of my own. Every moment was sacrificed to the dictates of the Communist party apparatus and the Soviet espionage system.

Wire-Tapping

By George Sokolsky

Life in this country has become increasingly complicated in all its phases since we embarked on war and world-leadership and suffered the Russian counter-attack of espionage and infiltration. It just seems as though nobody can mind his own business any more.

SOKOLSKY

One of the complications of our times is that the police power of government may no longer be blind to the presence of spies within the government itself.

Adlai Stevenson joins with Sen. McCarthy in a wish to eliminate spies and espionage, but he would do the eliminating with dignity and politeness. All of this is very nice and gentlemanly but will not rid the country of spies.

-:-

IT OUGHT to be recalled that the type of espionage and corruption which the Russians now employ was not invented by the Communists. It has a long history in European, particularly Russian, diplomacy.

The corruption of an official, high or low, of one country by the secret police of another is an ancient European art.

Fouche did very well in its use for Napoleon; Nicholas II employed this art through his Okhrana.

In the United States, we did not suffer from it as long as we were isolated from European affairs.

It moved in upon us in 1934, but what must have surprised the Russians, and certainly does surprise us, is that so large a number of Americans could be recruited for this work, most often on a voluntary basis.

(It needs to be noted that there is no evidence that the Nazi tried to establish a similar operation.)

WIRE-TAPPING is abhorrent to Americans because it does not give the hunted even a warning.

It is like a police car on a road that does not show it is a police car. The first indication that the fellow who endangers his own and other people's lives has is when he hears the siren. Nevertheless, it must be recognized that the criminal, particularly the spy and the conspirator, never serves warning.

He may sing "God Bless America" louder than anybody else and put a proximity fuse in his lunchbox. He may denounce the Soviet conspiracy and make photostats of top secret documents. That is what conspiracy means and what conspirators do naturally.

Nor do subversives look like subversives. There is no stereotype. It is impossible to pick out a man and say that he looks like a Stalinist or a Trotzkyist or Joe McCarthy.

Harry Dexter White was a fine figure of a man and Alger Hiss looked like a candidate for a stag line.

THE ASSUMPTION that those who like to generalize made the most of these conspirators are Jews or foreigners is, of course, nonsense. Among the leading Communist figures are men and women of our very best families, going back to colonial times.

So, the agencies charged with watching them and ferreting them out have a very tough time of it, particularly as our laws were written to protect the rights of decent people.

The conspirators take full advantage of the law, particularly the statute of limitations, which works in their favor.

If evidence obtained by wiretapping could be used in trials, more conspirators would be caught. Attorney General Brownell has proposed that Congress grant the Department of Justice that right.

Many Americans believe that the Department of Justice, through the FBI, is engaged in wholesale wiretapping, that thousands, if not millions, of phones are tapped.

I HAVE MADE inquiries and learned that less than 200 have been tapped at any one time by the FBI and that is obviously a very small number, involving only such matters as kidnaping, extortion, espionage, and internal security in the entire United States.

None of the evidence so obtained may now be used in a federal court. It is believed that many conspirators could be indicted if wiretaps could be used as evidence.

Some bills recently proposed in Congress permitting wire-tapping are self-defeating. As long as the conspirator and most of these bills involve the possibility of such a notice.

Conspiracy is a dirty business and conspirators must be astute men or women or they would not be accepted for this kind of work. We ought to be as smart and as capable as they are.

Crusade-Killers

By Victor Riesel

First they try to scare you off. But you don't scare. Then they try to buy you off. But you don't sell your soul.

RIESEL

Then there are those who appeal to your conscience. Exposures, they say, will hurt all labor. That you don't want to do. You don't want to hurt the little guy, the decent union officials, thousands of them who've never taken a dirty dollar.

You don't pause long. Not after a few hours in Detroit, for example. You know in your heart that failutre to expose the hoods, and failure to alert the country to those who make labor a business career, is the greatest disservice to the decent labor movement.

GO TO DETROIT where the year's most sensational labor scandals have broken virtually unnoticed by the nation. See the record.

Read where one Ray Carroll, once leader of Race Track and Building Service Unions, reveals that some labor officials are part of the mobs trying to get a bigger cut—bigger, mind you—of the $1,250,000,000 being gambled at harness and flat racing tracks across the country.

Go to Detroit and read the record of William E. Bufalino, a lawyer turned labor leader — the man who left a million dollar a year juke box distribution company because he thought it just wasn't sufficiently "prosperous."

So Bufalino became a labor leader. Now this poor proletarian lives "in terrific squander." He is president of the Detroit Teamsters 'Juke Box' Local 985.

TESTIMONY at an extortion examination in Recorders Court shows that this Bufalino is a tough throwback to the old days. He discovered that stink bombs are slightly out of season — and had to pay $100 apiece for six of them to help him win arguments with those who wouldn't install his, or his friends', juke boxes.

Testimony says that when one owner "got mad," Bufalino said that "stench bombs and bricks were arguments to care of such problems."

Bricks are cheaper, you see. They're always in season. You can have them thrown at $25 a heave. Cheaper by the dozen, if you're a friend of Bufalino.

He also "unionized" the auto-wash industry in what my friends who are so conscience-conscious must admit is a slightly unorthodox fashion. Under Bufalino's system, the boss pays a flat sum down and a flat sum per worker plus the workers' dues each month.

INCIDENTALLY, the boss is told not to bother asking the workers if they want to join the union. Just pay their fees and dues.

Go to Detroit for the congressional sub-committee hearing into the union insurance field. Any subtle insinuation that there is anything illegal here is pure coincidence. I'm concerned only with a question of trade union ethics.

To be treated as a crusade, labor leaders should live like crusaders. There is no reason why any labor leader, or those who service him, should not live well.

No union leader is a second class citizen. He is most certainly entitled to his investments — so long as they do not spring from his power as a union official.

When, as in the case of one Allen Dorfman, his labor friends in Detroit and Chicago enable him to run the Union Insurance Agency of Illinois, which made four per cent on 18 mililon dollars in premiums, young Dorfman and his friends should examine their own consciences.

That comes to $720,000 in a few years. This take is now running into the millions.

WHEN YOUNG Dorfman takes the stand and the Fifth Amendment, thus legally refusing to reveal where $10,000 in company checks went, he and his friends should examine their consciences.

This money is paid at the rate of $2 a week per worker by 4000 employers to cover some 70,000 teamsters and other workers.

If there is such profit in this business, it should be turned back into better insurance for the working people who give their trust to those who lead them.

As I figure it, this profit came to over $5,500 a week. What matters it if this is legal?

Why should employers get the bite for an extra half a million a year?

Why should such an operation open all labor to criticism — especially the highly placed Chicago labor leaders with whom they fraternize?

Instead of shedding tears at these exposures, my good friends in labor should shed the easy money boys, the rackets and those who have crucified their crusade.

Transplanted

By Laura Hobson

A troopship from the Far East docked at Seattle the other day—and on it was a story not of war and killing but of humanity and love.

HOBSON

It's about an American family in Texas and a Korean boy, aged 7, whose name is Kim Song Ho. Or was Kim Song Ho. The story started on a Korean battlefield three years ago where a four-year-old was found shivering and terrified beside a bonfire. Both his parents had died from an exploding bomb, and Kim had watched them die.

-:-

HE WAS TAKEN to the nearest U. S. Army camp and given care and shelter. He stayed on month after month, gradually dropping most of his native language and picking up "some GI English."

And then along came some new troops, including Sgt. Clyde L. Crawford. He was from San Antonio, Texas, and had children of his own back home—Linda Marie, 3, Bobby Dale, 10, and Lanna Lee, 13.

He took to Kim right away and vice versa, and the days and weeks passed. Then, back home in Texas, Mrs. Crawford received a letter that "quite shocked her at first." What about getting Kim to the U. S., her husband wrote, and adopting him as their second son?

IT WAS a very large and complicated concept, and Mrs. Crawford began to think large new thoughts. "After talking it over with our own children, and finding them very enthusiastic about it, we all decided we were 100 per cent for it."

The news went to Clyde Crawford in Korea. And to Kim. But when Sgt. Crawford was to return home, the Korean immigration quota for the year was exhausted, and he had to sail alone and leave Kim behind.

But people who made such decisions—thank heaven that this should be so—are not permanently stymied by delays and technicalities.

SGT. CRAWFORD appealed for help to his friend, Sgt. Earl G. Tillison, of Livermore, Iowa, and had him appointed Kim's legal guardian, with full power of attorney for things like visas and travel papers. When the rotation system finally got around to Sgt. Tillison this fall, he took Kim aboard that troopship with him.

And so at last Kim arrived in the U. S. and went straight on to San Antonio to meet the rest of his family-to-be. Perhaps things were a bit strained for a minute all round, but then Bobby Dale suddenly handed over his own set of six guns. Kim went for them like mad and his new American boyhood had begun.

THOUGH immigration officials say a two-year period must elapse before Kim can apply for citizenship, he'll be allowed to enter public school at mid-term.

In the meantime Bobby Dale and the other kids in the neighborhood play Indians and robbers with him constantly and, at the advanced age of 7, young Kim Crawford is feeling again the security and love of parents and a family.

As for the American soldier who started it all, the only bad taste in his mouth is the difficulty he had with the red tape. "The embassy in Korea," Sgt. Crawford says, "wasn't very cooperative. I wouldn't go through that part again for Marilyn Monroe."

Maybe not. But something tells me he'd go through it again for young Kim.

BARBERTON, Ohio (AP)—A wildcat strike stopped production by some 400 workers today at the Seiberling Rubber Co. The company said the walkout started after four men were laid off for refusing assigned work. Victory Flaherty, president of a CIO-United Rubber Workers local, said the union was urging members to return to work so the dispute could be settled in orderly fashion.

Broiled Halibut Steak Has an Enticing Flavor

A fish story you'll have to read to believe is this recipe for broiled Halibut steaks.

If you serve fish on Friday or just any day, you'll appreciate having this recipe. Sizzling hot, they will taste as good as they look.

Place halibut steaks in preheated broiler pan. Bursh with sauce made by mixing together 3 tablespoons melted butter or margarine, 1 tablespoon paprika, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, ½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, and 1 tablespoon lemon juice. Place pan in broiler 2 inches from heat and broil 5 minutes. Turn steaks, brush again with sauce, and broil 5 to 8 minutes longer, or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork.

Ohio GI Faces Murder Trial in North Carolina

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C. (AP) — Sgt. Vernon A. Thomas, 25, of South Massillon, Ohio, was arrested and charged with murder here Tuesday in the Monday night slaying of another soldier.

Police Chief W. F. Worrell said witnesses reported Thomas fired on Sgt. Frederick J. Brown, 25, of Roxbury, Mass., in self defense when Brown advanced on him with a bottle. Both soldiers were with the 82nd Airborne Division Band at Ft. Bragg.

KETTLES PLACED AT BUCYRUS

BUCYRUS — Salvation Army kettles were placed on downtown street corners here Monday and the kettles will be manned by organization workers until Christmas Eve, Capt. Harriet Schultz, commanding officer of the army's citadel, announced. All contributions will be used for Christmas charity work among needy Bucyrus families. On Thursday, Dec. 24, members of the Bucyrus Lions' Club will assist army workers in appealing to shoppers for contributions for the kettles.

Crawford, inner guard; Norman Aikens, trustee for three years; Paul Harrington, trustee for two years; George Lockwood, trustee for one year. Paul J. Savage was named chairman of the entertainment committee.

Entertainment during the social hour included music and cards. An ensemble composed of Mrs. Walter Lyons, pianist, Mrs. Harold Ludwick, trumpet, Mrs. H. Lee Prettyman, violin and Miss Helen Lyons, clarinet, played several numbers, and Mrs. Ludwick, Mrs. Prettyman and Miss Lyons sang several trio selections. The next meeting will be Jan. 26.

MERGER APPROVED

CLEVELAND (AP) — City Council yesterday approved the merger of city and county relief services for an 11-year period starting Jan. 1. The city's 2½ million-dollar-a-year relief operation will be taken over by the county.

Club Hears Richard Thomas

Reds Still Plot Against Free World, Foremen Told

World Communist forces still are plotting against democracy, and show no genuine desire to live in peace with the free western nations, globetrotter and news analyst Richard Thomas declared last night in a talk to the Marion Foremen's Club.

He cited as an example of Soviet obstructionism her recent refusal, on three occasions, to join the West in fourpower talks; and then her subsequent "acceptance," but accompanied by notice that strong demands will be made that the West scuttle all defense moves against Soviet aggression.

Thomas made these points in an address at Columbian Hall.

THE SPEAKER, a veteran of 25 years of reporting and newscasting in Europe, Asia, Africa, the Pacific, and Central and South America, has lived or traveled in 60 different countries; has a conversational knowledge of French, German, Spanish, Arabic and Japanese; and has interviewed at first hand thousands of natives in all parts of the world.

Turning to Russia, the correspondent asserted that the Kremlin's latest move, following a long time policy of stalling on the maneuver to drive a wedge between the Allies.

"Russia has withdrawn her advance demands fo a dismantlement of Allied defense, and won't present them until the meeting has found support in France and Britain. We must be on our guard lest two of our friends in Europe accuse us of holding back on peace moves."

THE SPEAKER went on to say that Russia proclaims she wants to reduce world tension, when she knows she could reduce it if she would call off Communist aggression in Indochina, return the hundreds of Americans still held illegally in North Korea, and honestly strive for a settlement on the war ridden peninsula.

In the light of this situation, Thomas said some British spokesmen would blame the United States for the present state of world tension. He recalled that in the last 15 years, the United States has suffered one million battle casualties in two wars and has spent 350-billion dollars in attempting to restore democracy to the world.

Russia, meantime—he said—had taken over for herself 15 different countries with a total population of 600-million persons.

MR. THOMAS then discussed France. He noted France had slipped badly from a military point of view. He added that France is int he paradoxial position of rejecting her own plan for a European army against any Russian aggression, while Germany has given broad approval to the French plan.

Other Allies, too, cause us concern he said, Italy and Yugoslavia must both yield a point in the struggle for Trieste, or otherwise will cause the anti-Communist world untold difficulties. In the Far East, he said South Korea and Japan, perennially at odds, also should learn to yield a little lest one day the Communists reap the benefits of their dissension.

Closing his talk, the speaker said America's course is at best difficult. He advocated we make our point of view clear to all the world; that we stand up for our rights and grovel before no one; that we continue our middle-of-the-road policy toward decency and honesty in international affairs. Thomas admitted this is a hard path. But, he asserted, it is the one which will ultimately pay the greatest dividends, and will gain us the respect of the rest of the world.

There were 121 persons present. The speech was preceded by a regular business meeting. It was announced the club would visit the General Motors plant in Columbus next Tuesday.

Members who plan to make the trip are to assemble at the main lobby of the Columbus plant at 7:30 p.m. Wives have been invited.

City Firemen Called Out Twice by Minor Blazes

Two fire runs were made by Marion city firemen during the last 24 hours.

At 7:38 p.m. Tuesday Central Station firemen were called to extinguish a fire in an automobile, owned by Frank Bentz of 260 Kensington Pl., involved in an accident in front of Temple Israel on Mt. Vernon Ave. Firemen estimated damage to the car from the fire at about $10. The fire was caused by radiator anti-freeze and gasoline from the carburetor spilling on the hot engine, firemen said.

Central station firemen also answered a call at 5:05 p.m. yesterday to the Isaly Dairy Co. plant on E. Center St. They reported a hot bearing on an air conditioner fan shaft set fire to some dust

Two Marion Physicians Receive 50-Year Awards

Two Marion physicians were honored for their service to the medical profession in the last 50 years at a meeting of the Marion Academy of Medicine Tuesday night.

Honored were Dr. E. L. Brady and Dr. E. H. Morgan. They were presented 50-year pins and certificates of distinction at the meeting, which was held at Hotel Harding.

Actress Who Quit Movies for Convent Life Back in Films

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Negotiations are under way for actress June Haver to co-star in the movie "My Sister Eileen."

Miss Haver, who quit Hollywood and a $3,500-a-week job to enter a Catholic convent last February, may make her screen comeback early next year. She and her agent, Ned Marin, and producer Jerry Wald have gone over tentative plans, and a Columbia Pictures spokesman says "June like the idea." Further talks are scheduled next week.

The 26-year-old actress was in the convent 7½ months, studying to become a nun. Then she returned home, saying ill health forced her to give up religious life.

Officers To Be Elected By Odd Fellows Lodge

Second nomination of officers was held and plans completed for the annual election of officers next Monday night, at a meeting of Kosciusko Lodge No. 58, IOOF, Monday night. An invitation was accepted to confer the initiatory degree on a class of candidates Dec. 8 at a meeting of the Odd Fellows Lodge at Delaware. Refreshments and a social hour will follow the next meeting.

Pike County Is First in Line on Aid for Schools

Atomic Plant Section Likely To Get Slice Of Government Funds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The atomic plant area in Pike County likely will get top consideration when federal funds are distributed for new schools in defense areas.

That's the opinion of A. D. St. Clair, state supervisor for federal assistance. St. Clair said nearly two score local school districts in Ohio have applied for the special federal aid.

The federal government assumes the responsibility of helping provide school houses in those areas where federal activities caused population jumps, St. Clair said.

He added the requests for federal aid have not been added up because the total amount in actual allotments will be different.

The deadline for filing applications was Nov. 24. St. Clair said most applications came from the atomic plant, Dayton, Columbus, Cleveland, Ravenna and Lima areas.

At present only 70 million dollars in federal aid is available for the entire country. St. Clair said Congress is expected to make more money available after it convenes in January.

In several cases requests for federal aid from Ohio school districts amounted to more than one million dollars, St. Clair said. He declined to name the districts.

The district applications now are being checked by representatives of the Federal Office of Education and the state education department. The federal agency decides the amount of money to which each district is entitled.

"Those areas where the need is greatest will receive first consideration," St. Clair said.

He points out the need is acute in Pike County and adjoining counties because in some school districts enrollments have doubled or trebled.

The applications include five or six for federal funds for temporary school buildings. They would be built in areas expected to have only a temporary increase in population.

St.Clair said that after the atomic plant is completed in the next few years construction workers now living in trailers will move on with their children of school age.

But towns like Piketon, Jackson and Waverly are expected to be larger after the plant is built than they are now, keeping some of their population increase.

The federal grants will be based on the number of children expected in school next June 30. These estimates are being checked by the state.

The money goes directly to school districts, which can use some of it for preparing plans for the buildings. None of the money can be used to buy land for school buildings.

St.Clair said all the temporary schools should be ready by fall, and some of the permanent buildings could be ready by then. Detailed plans have been drawn in only a few cases, he said.

DOWNHILL PUSH

VICKSBURG, Miss. (UP)—Curtis Bass and John Smith told police they pushed their truck down a hill to start the engine and did not know it would shear off an electric light pole, knock down a stop light, rip off a fire plug, land in a grocery store window and disrupt electric service to a large part of downtown Vicksburg.

IGNORES DISMISSAL. Chief Justice William Clark of the U. S. Court of Appeals in Germany said he had been fired by the State Department for "failing to take orders." However, the jurist, a native of Princeton, N. J., declared he would ignore the dismissal notice and continue to hold court.

Marion Youth Elected By Youth Fellowship

Mervyn Matteson from the Greenwood EUB Church Youth Fellowship was elected an officer when the Senior Youth Fellowship of the Ohio Sandusky Conference, Evangelical United Brethren Church, met Friday at Trinity Church at Bowling Green. This was the annual Thanksgiving retreat of the conference group. Attending from Marion were five young people from two churches.

Torrey Kaatz of Toledo was elected president, and the Marion member was named chairman of recreation and leisure. Others chosen to make up the conference cabinet were Miss Heth Corl of Fostoria, vice president; Miss Marjorie Osborn of Findlay, secretary; David Young of Woodville, chairman for worship and devotional life; and David Hochstetler of Findlay, formerly of Marion, evangelism and stewardship chairman.

Stanford Ruggles, formerly of Marion, ministerial student who has a pastorate in Fostoria, presided for the morning session and was toastmaster for the banquet.

Others attending from Marion were Donna Eller, Susan Rinnert and Phillip Wendell of Calvary Church, and Ellen Busler from Greenwood Church.

At one time Kaskaskia, Ill., was the metropolis of the Mississipi Valley. Today nothing of the once important town remains. It was washed away by the Mississippi.

$75,000 Remodeling Project Completed at Kline's

Reopening of Store Here To Be Celebrated on Friday, Saturday

A complete remodeling project will be climaxed Friday at Kline's Department Store, Hyman L. Shapiro, manager of the store announced today. The job, which took four months to complete, cost in the neighborhood of $75,000.

A reopening celebration will be held Friday and Saturday. Both the interior and exterior of the store were remodeled in the process. The exterior now has modern show cases and a wider entrance.

INSIDE, NEW tile was laid on all floors. In addition, modern fluorescent lighting was installed in the three floors. Shapiro said the project was instituted to make the store completely modern. Clothes racks and tables have been rearranged inside the store. The aisles have been widened to provide extra walking space and easier access to merchandise.

Shapiro also said today new lines of merchandise have been added to the stock to meet the needs of the customers.

All work was done by local contractors. Handling the general contracting for the entire job was the Bauldauf Construction Co. The Cripps Paint and Glass Co. was responsible for the work outside the building.

NEW RUGS WERE laid on the balcony and second floor. New self-serve display tables have been installed on all but the second floor. New display racks have been installed along the walls on the second floor and downstairs store. They are designed to appear as a part of the walls.

All work in the downstairs store is completed. On the other floors, some painting is still to be done.

Shapiro explained that because of the holiday season, the painting was not completed but will be done soon after the holidays.

The stairway leading to the basement has been moved from the center of the main floor to the rear, permitting some extra room in the selling area of both floors.

A new awning has been installed on the outside.

RELOCATION OF some of the departments has followed the remodeling project. Now in the downstairs store are the children's, boys' and domestic departments. Budget dresses are now on the balcony. Following the holiday season, Shapiro has indicated there will be other changes in the locations of some departments.

Four months of work and nearly $75,000 went in to the remodeling project completed this week at Kline's department store. Both the exterior and interior of the store were modernized.

UPPER: Modern showcases and wider entranc es are now on the outside of the building. The display cases are equipped with powerful lights to illu minate them at night.

LOWER: Wider aisles and easier access to mer chandise are featured inside the store. This is a view of the second floor.

Prowler Tries To Kidnap Girl

Extra Police Called In Cleveland Search

CLEVELAND (AP) — Extra policemen were sent to the East Side's Glenville area today to search for a tall prowler who tried to kidnap a 3-year-old girl and appeared at five other homes in the neighborhood.

The man, believed to be a mental case, snatched Darlene Marie Iles from her bed, but dropped her unharmed outside a first-floor bedroom window and fled. Darlene aroused her mother by screaming after she either squirmed loose or was dropped by the prowler.

Her mother, Mrs. Donna Marie Iles, 22, ran out to the back porch where she found the weeping, dirty, frightened youngster.

Under the bedroom window, police found a can the prowler used to stand on when he ripped loose a plastic storm window covering.

Shortly before the attempted kidnaping, a man detectives believe to have been the abductor broke into the nearby apartment of Mrs. Mary Krup. And after Darlene was carried out of the window, three other households in the neighborhood reported a man of similar description tried to enter through a window.

Mrs. Sylvia Siegel, 42, said she noticed the door to her 13-year-old daughter's bedroom was open when she got up to get a drink of water. Then she saw a man standing in the room and said he "turned and dove headlong out the window."

Firemen at Galion Ask Salary Raise

Special to The Star

GALION — City firemen, in a letter to city council Tuesday night, asked an increase in salary of 10 per cent due to cost of living, and also that hours be reduced from 72 to 63. This was referred to the finance committee, and the police, fire and health committee of Council.

Several ordinances were passed by the city legislators. These included one to fix the salary of the city solicitor at $2400 per year. Councilman explained that they felt justified in giving the solicitor $200 per month because he has never been allotted money for handling police court cases which is customary.

An ordinance was passed to pay damages of $90.28 to Harvey Huy for materials he purchased to build a fence to keep his cattle from drinking water where city disposal water had seeped into it. The ordinance was passed to pay the law firm of Petri and Hesby, $1,000 for legal counsel in clearing the title to land for the new above ground city water storage.

Another ordinance was passed making it permissible for prisoners guilty of drunken driving to be sentenced to either the city jail or the Crawford County jail. Prior to this, the law sentenced prisoners to the county jail, only, and this required the city extra work in making out committment papers.

A lengthy ordinance authorizing the issuance of notes in anticipation of issuance of bonds for several street improvements was passed.

Galion Entertains VFW Conference

Special to The Star

GALION — A two-day conference of the tenth district of the veterans of Foreign Wars was held in Galion last weekend. Post 4329 of Galion was host for the conference.

The conference was presided over Sunday morning by Earl Beach, district commander. George L. Fetter, quartermaster of the Department of Ohio, was an honored guest. He conducted a quartermaster school of instructions Sunday afternoon.

Delegates registered Saturday afternoon, and the Cootie Scratch meeting was held at the Armory Saturday night when eight candidates received the second and third degrees, making them full fledged Cooties, an organization in the V. of F. W. that provides gifts and treats to veterans in hospitals and their children. George Karbula was the only local candidate. A dance was held Saturday night with 150 men and auxiliary members present. Chet Whitt's orchestra furnished music.

The conference closed Sunday noon with a steak dinner served by the post members and committees of the Ladies Auxiliary.

750 JOIN STRIKE

CINCINNATI (AP)—Some 750 employes of the American Can Co. today joined a nationwide strike. Al Jordan, city councilman and a CIO United Steelworkers staff representative, said the picket lines were thrown around the local plant at midnight.

New Kenton Court Will Open on Jan. 1

Special to The Star

KENTON — City Council set up plans at a special meeting Monday night for Kenton's municipal court which will open Jan. 1.

Safety Service Director John White was authorized to prepare for the court by getting the lowest bid for some remodeling at the courthouse. Council authorized expenditures of $1,809.30 for furniture and fixtures for the court; $1,078 for books and forms; and $380 for a legal library for the court.

Ordinances increasing the salary of the mayor from $1,200 to $1,800 and the city solicitor from $900 a year to $1,600 annually were also passed. The solicitor's salary was raised because of the heavier duties called for by the new municipal court and the mayor's salary was increased because he will not receive costs on certain cases which he now hears in his court.

The municipal judge will receive a salary of $4,500 annually.

The city has also been granted another permit to discharge sewage into the Scioto River, contingent upon the city's proceeding with construction of the new sewage treatment plant. The permit was granted by the State Board of Health and will be in effect until July 1, 1954.

President, Senator Near Break?

Choice of Jenner Committee To Probe White Case Appears Slap at McCarthy

By JAY G. HAYDEN

WASHINGTON (NANA)—If as is now widely predicted the Harry Dexter White affair has brought about a final climactic break between President Eisenhower and Senator McCarthy, history may record that it was Mr. Eisenhower, or his attorney general, Herbert Brownell, who cast the decisive brickbat.

That offensive shot, close friends of Senator McCarthy say, was the choice of the internal security subcommittee of the committee on judiciary headed by Sen. William Jenner, as sounding board for the Brownell attack, rather than the Senate's general investigations subcommittee which McCarthy chairmans.

McCarthy, it is said, was doubly offended on that score because he received no advance notice whatsoever of Brownell's pronouncement, while even chairman Harold Velde of the House Committee on Un-American activities was told of it one hour ahead of the general public.

ROBERT HUMPHREYS, publicity director of the Republican National Committee, who tipped off Velde, says he tried at the same time to inform McCarthy "but could not reach him anywhere by phone."

In contrast, it is now established that Jenner had been in on the Brownell plan for weeks, including a specific program, prepared in advance, for rearing of J. Edgar Hoover and others in support of the attorney general's allegations.

Reasons why the administration bypassed McCarthy are plain enough.

First, to have handed him the Harry Dexter White ball would have aroused all the antagonisms that McCarthy's flamboyance has given birth to, including irritation of a large section of the Republican party that abhors him.

SECOND, THERE is no such thing for McCarthy as playing second fiddle. Either he would run the whole show, or not play at all.

Third, McCarthy's investigatorial rostrum is exceedingly shaky. On account of his attempted employment of J. B. Matthews as chief investigator for his committee, all of its three Democratic members resigned and no senators of that party have been found willing to replace them. One Republican, Sen. Charles Potter of Michigan, forced out Matthews by refusing to vote for him.

Currently the committee consists of four members, a bare majority of its prescribed seven. Any one remaining member—Mundt of South Dakota, Dirksen of Illinois or Potter—can upset McCarthy any time they individually choose by simply staying away and challenging his right to do business without the majority required to constitute a quorum.

SINCE THE DEMOCRATS quit and Potter established himself as no "stooge" McCarthy has cited not one of the many witnesses who have defied him for contempt of the Senate—the only means by which a recalcitrant congressional witness can be opened to punishment.

The reason why McCarthy has forsaken that course obviously is that indicting a witness for contempt requires first a majority vote of the committee—every active member as the McCarthy subcommittee stands—and after that a majority vote of the full Senate.

Confronted with any controversy between McCarthy and President Eisenhower, Potter almost certainly would incline to support the President, and there have been signs lately that neither Mundt nor Dirksen can be counted on to back up McCarthy sight unseen.

SHOULD AN ISSUE involving either McCarthy's investigatorial methods or a difference between him and President Eisenhower reach the full Senate, there is scarcely any doubt as to the result.

The three Democrats who walked out of the committee—McClellan of Arkansas, Symington of Missouri and Jackson of Washington—hardly could be better chosen as bell-cows for the more or less conflicting elements of their party—South, North and Middle West.

Even so, McCarthy's potentiality as a political disturber remains enormous. His nearest prototype in recent years was Sen. Huey P. Long of Louisiana who, arriving in 1932, just ahead of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, kept that whole Democratic administration in furor or until he died in 1935 from a bullet fired by a disgruntled former officeholder in his home state.

Armed with his slogan of "Every Man a King," Long was openly bidding for the presidency just before his death, and Roosevelt admitted he was more scared of him than any other opponent then in sight.

McCarthy's political approach is different but he has the same concentrated ego and unlimited brass that were Huey Long's main stock in political trade. There is hardly any doubt that Senator McCarthy has cost President Eisenhower more sleepless nights than any other American.

Low Rent Federal Housing Finished, Congressman Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Eberharter (D-Pa) said today he understands the Eisenhower administration has decided to halt the low-rent public housing program and to sell the buildings it owns.

He said liquidation of the program was urged upon the administration by the National Assn. of Real Estate Boards, which he described as "the strongest and most influential voice in the determination of housing policies under this administration." He said selling of the projects would mean that most tenants would be driven into slums.

There was no immediate comment from government housing officials.

"Under legislation passed earlier this year, no new projects could be started," Eberharter said. "That signaled the death of the public housing program, but it left unsettled the question of disposing of the remains—what to do with existing projects and those under construction.

"The decision has now been made, I understand, to liquidate the program by selling the projects to private enterprise."

Harding Quintet Rolls Past Galion in 72-38 Victory

Presidents' Fast-Breaking Punch Overpowers Tigers

By JOHN SHORT

Harding High School's sharpshooters went wild last night at Galion to walk away with an easy 72-38 win over the Tiger cage squad.

The game was close for the first period before Coach Jim Lawler's charges opened up to pull away. It was the second win of the season for the Prexies.

At Top Speed

Operating at top speed from the opening jump, Harding's fast-breaking offense proved too much for Coach Jack Shauck's quintet. The host team broke the scoring ice when Tom Quay hooked one in from the corner to put his team ahead for the only time. A free throw by Max Kaelber and Ron Conroy's jump shot shoved the Prexies ahead for keeps after two minutes and 10 seconds had elapsed.

From there Harding built up a 14-6 lead but a brief rally by the Tigers cut the margin to 14-10 at the end of the first period. Conroy sparked the Harding attack in that period with seven points. Doug Bibler took over the major portion of the scoring in the second stanza. He dropped in seven as the winners moved to a 31-17.

In the third period it was Dave Schnelker with nine markers to lead the Prexies. During that quarter the Harding team clinched the verdict with a 24-point uprising while Galion was netting 16. Harding went into the final quarter with a 55-33 bulge.

Increases Lead

Harding spurted to a 64-37 lead early in the period before the game was slowed by the referee's whistle. In the final four minutes, 14 fouls were called. Galion managed to score only five points during that period, however. All of the scoring came from the foul line as the Tigers failed to connect once from the field.

The Prexies hit on 26 of 52 attempts from the field to finish the game with a 50 per cent average. From the charity line, Harding turned in 20 of 39 attempts. The Harding defense refused to allow the Galion cagers to set themselves and only nine shots were hit from the field. The Tigers also picked up 20 points from the foul line.

Schnelker and Conroy were the big guns for the Prexies. Schnelker netted eight of his total on foul shots Bibler dumped in 13 points. Coach Lawler used 11 men in his lineup and all crashed the scoring column.

For the losers Tom Quay hit for 10 points. Garverick was next high with nine.

Reserves Win

Harding's Vice Presidents also rolled to an easy win taking the preliminary game 73-46. Fourteen of 15 players used by Coach Al Beach scored with Shield taking top honors with 11. Lowell McFann and Harold Jones each added 10. The Harding team forged to a 21-6 lead in the first period and led at the half 42-20.

Harding travels to Willard Friday night for its second road game before playing host to Columbus Aquinas on Dec. 8.

Pleasant Falls Before Radnor Trojans 52-34

Pleasant's cage team fell 52-34 last night at Radnor where it warmed up for a Marion County League game Friday against Morral.

Coach Dick Meyer's cagers raced to an 18-8 lead in the first period and led at the half 31-17. Don Maxwell poured in 13 points to pace the Trojans' attack while Charley Gray added 12.

Ron Gorby was high man for Charles Brobeck's team. He pumped 11 points through the hoop. The Radnor reserves squeezed to a 30-26 win in the preliminary game.

Jerry Helluin To Plug Gaps For Brownies

CLEVELAND (AP)—Jerry Helluin, benched by a broken arm six weeks ago, is due to go back on the Cleveland Browns active list this week, replacing linebacker Tommy Thompson, who was hospitalized by a dislocated knee.

Coach Paul Brown put Thompson on the inactive list yesterday and predicted Helluin, big, second-year middle guard would be the replacement on the Browns' 33-man roster.

Dr. Vic. Ippolito, team physician, said Helluin still was not ready to play but would be ready in time for the Dec. 27 championship game. Helluin has to be on active duty this week to take part in the interdivision playoff for the National Football League crown.

Thompson, called the best linebacker in the league by Brown, was hurt Nov. 22 playing against Pittsburgh. He captained the Eastern Division champions defensive squad.

After the Browns clinched the title Sunday by winning their 10th straight game, Brown said he planned to rest injured men during the last two games of the regular season—against New York and Philadelphia.

But if the coach leaves all the bruised men on the bench, he would have a hard time fielding a team. Among those recovering from bumps and bangs are ends Darrell Brewster and Dante Lavelli, guard Abe Gibron, linebacker Walt Michaels, guard Bill Willis, halfback Tommy James and quarterback Otto Graham.

Graham suffered a badly cut face against the San Francisco 49ers, but finished that game and has played two since.

Brown, possibly recalling an earlier time when he tried to slow down his club, says he wants his players to relax, but not too much. Way ahead a couple of years ago, he told the Browns at half time to take it a little easier and not get hurt. The club relaxed—apparently too much—and three men were hurt.

Face Ruin

Dissention, TV-Radio Deal Rip Minor League Ranks

By JOE REICHLER

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—The minor leagues, trying desperately to save themselves from financial ruin, today faced the worst dilemma in their 52-year history.

As the convention moved into its third day, the minors found themselves torn with inner strife, rebellion, charges of pirating and open dissention in the ranks. There also remained that ever-present ogre, major league radio and television invasions of their territory.

Unable to get help from the majors and apparently unable to help themselves, the little fellows are being ground deeper and deeper into the financial swamp.

In an unprecedented action, Frank Shaughnessy, the highly respected president of the International League, was forced to defend himself against the charge that he was trying to steal Piedmont League territory (Richmond, Va.) as a new strut for his own weakened loop.

Shaughnessy faced an accusing Frank Summers, president of the Piedmont League, before minor league czar George M. Trautman.

Summers charged that Shaughnessy, in an attempt to replace the faltering Springfield, Mass., franchise, has tried to woo Richmond into the triple A international, thereby causing untold damage to the class B Piedmont. Shaughnessy denied the charge, saying he simply is trying to affect the salvation of his own league.

After hearing both sides, Trautman said he felt no real wrong had been done and was confident that things can be worked out.

Owner Eddie Mooers of the Richmond club, however, announced after the meetings that he had rejected a $200,000 offer for his franchise and real estate property. The offer was made by Harry Seibold, Richmond industrialist, who had intended to move the club into the International.

Springfield, a Chicago cub farm club, is demanding $25,000 to relinquish its franchise. It has until Dec. 12 to make up its mind whether it desires to continue in the league.

The Pacific Coast League met last night to decide the validity of ownership of the San Francisco club. After purchasing the Seals from Paul Fagan, the PCL resold them to Damon Miller, a former employe of the club. The selling price was $100,000, of which Miller paid $10,000. President Clarence Rowland of the PCL emerged from the meeting with the announcement that Miller would be given more time to pay the balance. It was rumored in other circles, however, that control of the club might go to someone else.

Trouble also was brewing in the Southwest, where Dick Burnett, multimillionaire oilman who owns Dallas, threatened to upset the basic structure of the minor leagues. Burnett demanded that the minors receive some protection against major league radio and TV. He also advocated substituting the the majority vote for the three-quarter needed now to adopt new legislation.

While the minors were trying to figure out methods of fighting the menace of major league TV and radio in their territories, the big leaguers were formulating a game of the week television deal that figures to cripple the already meager drawing power of the minors.

The game of the week idea, advanced by Commissioner Ford Frick, is expected to bring a revenue of some two million dollars for the 1954 season, the program consisting of 26 Saturday telecasts of major league games throughout the country. The money would be divided on a 50-50 basis between the majors and minors.

Caledonia Hits On 10 Per Cent Of Shots, Loses

Caledonia cagers hit on only 10 per cent of their field goal attempts last night and as a result bowed to visiting Chesterville 45-36.

The Donians got in 70 shots toward the goal but only 12 fell through. The losers picked up 12 points from the foul line. Ervin Hunt dropped in 11 points to pace the loser's attack while three mates each added eight. James was the big gun for Chesterville with 20 markers.

The losers dropped behind 15-11 in the opening period and trailed at the midway point 23-19. The Caledonia reserves rolled to a 41-27 win in the preliminary game with Raymond Walker collecting 11 points. Hunt and Rhinehart were high for the Chesterville futures with five each.

Caledonia will travel to Claridon Friday night for a Marion County League game.

Marion Meets Chiefs in Game At Local Rink

he Marion Barons will be out to get a firmer grip on fourth place in the tightly packed International Hockey League tonight when they meet cellar-dwelling Milwaukee at the Coliseum. Game time is 8:30.

The locals now share fourth place with Troy, Louisville and Ft. Wayne.

In the only other league game tonight, Troy will also attempt to strengthen its hold on fourth place in a contest at Toledo.

If both Marion and Troy win they will be the only two teams in the fourth-ranking spot. If Marion wins while Troy loses, the Barons will be by themselves in fourth, and vice versa.

Tonight the Barons will try to get back in the win column after having a four-game win streak broken by the Ft. Wayne Komets last Sunday. In that game Ft. Wayne tallied three times in the first period. Marion never did catch up and lost 3-2.

The contest tonight will be the first of four this week for the Barons. After tonight, Marion travels to Louisville Thursday and to Toledo Saturday, coming home Sunday for a return game with Toledo.

In league action last night, Cincinnati moved to the top of the pack with a 4-2 victory over Toledo, while Grand Rapids downed Ft. Wayne 3-2.

Lacrosse was originated by the Canadian Indians many centuries ago under the name of baggataway.

First Returns

Opening Session Indicates High-Scoring Cage Season

By BEN PHLEGAR

NEW YORK (AP) — Any college with a basketball scoreboard that won't register over 100 points better give up the game this season

Returns from the first big college basketball night of the winter show more than a dozen scores in the three-figure category with anything under 80 almost certain to belong to a losing club.

Six of last season's top teams saw action last night and all triumphed.

Not all of the big clubs were as successful, however. The California Bears, supposedly the best club on the Pacific Coast, were thumped 51-43 by San Francisco in one of the lowest scoring games of the night. Texas A&M of the Southwest Conference was jolted 88-68 by Lamar Tech of Beaumont, and Clemson of the Atlantic Coast Conference bowed before the skill of little Presbyterian 92-61.

North Carolina State, perennial Southern powerhouse, hit the century mark against Furman, winning 100-74 although Frank Selvy scored 31 points for the losers. Selvy averaged 29.9 points a game in leading the nation's scorers in the 1952-53 season. State was ranked 18th in last spring's final Associated Press poll

St. John's of Brooklyn, runner-up in the 1953 National Invitation Tournament, was pushed by Roanoke College before winning 70-56.

Oklahoma A&M, No. 8 a season ago behind St. John's, showed tremendous offensive power in whipping Hardin-Simmons 85-40. But the Aggies also had their famous defense working, allowing the Texans only six field goals, five of them in the first half.

Two Big Ten clubs opened their season. Illinois, No. 11, warmed up against Ohio University 85-54, while improving Wisconsin, tabbed as a first-division contender, defeated Butler 70-54.

Wake Forest, No. 15, coasted against Virginia Tech 82-55, and DePaul, No. 19, beat Illinois Wesleyan 73-63.

In the high-scoring department, Tennessee swamped Wofford 107-63 and Fordham, tabbed as one of the best in New York, overpowered Adelphia 105-56. Ed Conlin scored 42 points for Fordham, tops for the night among the major schools.

Howard Hobson of Yale, one of the nation's best known coaches, watched his son score 17 points in leading the Elis to an 81-64 victory over Springfield College.

In the southwest, Southern Methodist beat Northwestern Louisiana 90-71; conference champion Texas Christian outclassed Austin College 73-39, Baylor defeated North Texas State 70-54, and West Texas State whipped Arizona State of Flagstaff 71-53.

Out West, Colorado State defeated Denver 73-56; Oregon beat Portland 79-72, and Southern California trimmed San Diego State 83-66.

A total of 15 games over 200 were posted in the Craftsman League at Marion Recreation Tuesday with Bob Shoemaker hitting 206, 170 234 games in his high 610 series. Pop & Jerrys took team honors with its 990-2679.

Sportsman's League bowlers at Palace Recreation were paced by C. McCreary's 225 and Gene Gunder's 624. Eleven 200 games were rolled on the alleys where Marion Metal hit 910 and Hydraulic Press and Spot Bar & Grill both cracked 2511.

Charles Kliesch's 214 and Bob Ulsh's 544 showed the way in the Automotive League. OK Cafe hit 926-2457 to lead the teams.

A 223 by C. Miller and 535 by D. Baylass led Marion Power Shovel League keglers. Two 200 games were posted there. Draglines with 874-2482 set the pace among the teams.

Honors in the Marion Industries Second Shift League were taken by H. Roberts' 229-566. His 200 game was one of two thrown there. Drivers with 814 and Racket Squad at 2274 led the teams.

HOGAN IS NINTH

NEW YORK (AP) — Ben Hogan, four-time winner of the National Open golf championship, finished ninth in the 1953 list of PGA money winners. Hogan won $16,604. Lew Worsham topped the pros followed by Doug Ford, Lloyd Mangrum, Chandler Harper, Dr. Cary Middlecoff, Porky Oliver, Ted Kroll, Dutch Harrison and Hogan.

Cardinals, Redlegs In Trade Huddles

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals still want a pitcher.

Cardinal Manager Eddie Stanky has been in a bargaining huddle with the Cincinnati Reds during the player draft meetings here this week, but after several hours of talk yesterday he said:

"We're still after what we came for—a pitcher."

SEMI-FINALS SLATED

Two semi-final games are scheduled tonight at the YMCA in the preseason invitational basketball tournament when the Marion A. C. goes against Peoples of Delaware at 7:30 p.m. and Green Camp Elevator meets Raymond at 8:30. Marion Industries earned a spot in the semi-finals last night by dumping G.I. Post out of the running. Industries will tangle with the Phythian Drugs of Columbus Friday at 8:30 and Meyers Pumps will also return Friday.

Larry Ryan Wins Berth In All-Star Grid Group

Larry Ryan, St. Mary's hard-charging fullback today was named to the Chic Harley All-Ohio high school football team selected each year by the Columbus Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Ryan, who sparked the Irish team to seven wins against a single loss, was the only Marion gridder named to the squad. He was one of three Class B players, honored with spots on the squad.

The 25-man all-star squad includes three Class B players each year. It was not divided into offensive and defensive teams.

Dave Kuenzli, Upper Sandusky's workhorse back, who topped the state in scoring, was named to the Class A group along with Keith Quail, the Rams' guard who led the way on many of Kuenzli's touchdown gallops.

Massillon's unbeaten state champions dominated the team with five players named. They included End Jim Letcavits, Guard Ronald Agnes, Tackel Bruce Schramm and John Francisco and John Traylor in the backfield.

Other players named to the team include: centers, Joe Defillippo of Lancaster and Bill Van Buren of Lorain; guards, Daniel Fronk of Dover and Ronald Fowler of Akron East; tackles, Jim Riffle of Warren, John Floyd of Columbus North and Dick Krebs of Cleveland Cathedral Latin; backs, Don Zimmerman of Dayton Chaminade, Jack Nichols of Canton Lehman, Jim Rogers of Warren, Charles Lima of Cincinnati Purcell and Dean Nicholson of Lisbon.

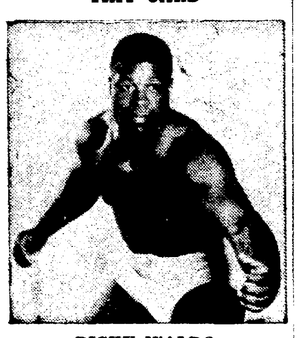
BLACK PANTHER & RICKY WALDO TEAM UP AGAINST SANDRO FOZO & DUTCH SCHULTZ ON BIG THURSDAY MAT CARD



RICKY WALDO

There will be plenty action, excitement and thrills Thursday night at the Marion Armory with a "Big" 8 Man Card.

The winning colored team of Black Panther and Ricky Waldo will wrestle the two ruffians, Sandro Fozo and Dutch Schultz in one of the main events.

The other 2 out of 3 fall match will have Scotty Williams who lost his belt last Thursday and wants a return match with Billy Fox, meeting another top hand Irish McGee. McGee wants the same thing, so the winner of this match gets a chance at the Tri-State Gold Belt.

For the 8:30 match Promoter Les Fishbaugh has finally got the Masked Marvel, who stands 6 ft. 6 inches and weighs 245 lbs. and Big Jim Lewis the wrestling State Patrolman will see how tough the masked one really is.

26 To Receive Letters During Harding Football Award Event

Letters will be awarded to 26 gi rs and three managers by Coach Pete Howison at the annual Harding High School banque Thursday at 6:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

Principal speaker is Ara Parseghian, football coach at Miami University of Oxford, O. He is a former Cleveland Brown gridder.

Pete will hand out awards to Bob Hamor, Bob Pryor, Fred Price, Doug Bibler, Whitey Clinger, Jim Whaley and John Obenour, all seniors; Joe Albinack, Gene Armstrong, Gary Ballinger, Bob Caldwell, Frank D'Eramo Jr., Fred Haen, Larry Harper, Chet King, Bob Prater, Hank Rinnert, Joe Snouffer, Bob Stauffer, Don Schweinfurth, Larry Sager and Abner Thomas, all juniors, and Ted Firstenberger, Tom Hazen, Gary Huber and Dave Townsend, sophomores. Letters will also be awarded to senior managers Jerry Lee, Nick Alex and Gary Mayes. Several special awards will be made.

Approximately 235 persons which includes parents and other persons who boosted the Hardin football team during the past sea son, will be at the banquet according to Ken Somerlot, Harding athletic coordinator who is in charge of arrangements. That number includes 52 Harding players and managers.

The speaker was a standout performer at Miami U and later played with the Browns. Parseghian served under Sid Gilman, now head football mentor at Cincinnati, and Woody Hayes, who now leads Ohio State's football fortunes. He has taken his Miami gridders into the annual Thanksgiving Day clash with Cincinnati undefeated the past two seasons but the Bearcats have marred Miami's record both times. Cincinnati defeated Miami 14-0 this season.

William Hamor, president of the Harding Boosters Club, is master of ceremonies for the banquet. J. H. Smith, Harding athletic treasurer, will give the invocation and L. G. Jones, head of the city music department, is in charge of the music for the program.

The Harding cheerleaders are in charge of the decorations for the first athletic banquet in the new school.

Wisconsin, Illinois Cagers Open Play

CHICAGO (AP)—Illinois and Wisconsin opened the basketball season for Big Ten teams last night, decisively beating nonconference opponents.

Illinois drubbed Ohio University, 85-54, as sohomore Paul Judson led a well-rounded attack with 17 points. Another sophomore, Bruce Brothers, scored 10 while veterans John Kerr and Max Hooper added 15 each.

Wisconsin, using superior height and speed, beat Butler, 70-54. Center Paul Morrow led scoring with 22 points.

Elm Valley Sinks Marengo's Quintet

ASHLEY — Elm Valley rolled past a hapless Marengo team here last night 66-25. The visitors failed to find the range and potted only six goals from the field.

The winners rolled to a 16-3 edge in the first period and at the half were ahead 29-11. John Humes and Bob Curren each dumped in 12 points for the Aces. Walt Borchers added 11 and Ed Vanausdle hit for 10. Huffman with seven points was high for the losers.

Marengo won the reserve game 39-38. The Aces play host to Radnor Friday night for the opener of the Delaware County League race.

Late Rally by Rams Downs Ada Quintet

UPPER SANDUSKY — The Upper Sandusky Rams dumped the visiting Ada Bulldogs last night after overcoming a 31-19 deficit at the half.

The Rams started slow and were behind 16-8 at the end of the first period. At the start of the final quarter the local quintet trailed 40-35 before the defense tightened to hold the visitors to four points in the final eight minutes.

Dave McClain poured in 16 markers to pace the Rams while Mike Riley chipped in with 15. For Ada, Jim Curtis sparked the attack with 14. Ernest Boutwell and Bud Routson each netted 12.

The Upper reserves fell 49-43 in an overtime. The score was deadlocked at 41-all at the end of the regulation playing time.

Radio and Television

By John Crosby

Mostly It Takes Stamina

The telethon is likely to be with us a long time, though the actors' unions are getting increasingly alarmed about it. The reason is simply that the telethon, as a device for raising money for a charity, is almost unbeatable.

J. CROSBY

Right here I'd like to dispel the idea that the people who call up and pledge money are a bunch of deadbeats who don't pay off. This notion got abroad after the famous telethon for the Olympic fund presided over by Bob Hope and Bing Crosby. About $1,000,000 was pledged. About $350,000 came in.

Today, because they know a lot more about how to run a telethon, the United Cerebral Palsy telethons sometimes collect $1.35 on the dollar.

PEOPLE WHO CALL UP and pledge $10 will get an attack of conscience and send $20. In Louisville, for instance, a Cerebral Palsy telethon attracted $150,000 in pledges and $171,000 came in. If doesn't always work that way, of course. Another UCP telethon in Salt Lake City got only $50,000 out of a pledged $69,000. But, after all, that's 71 per cent and quite a nice haul.

UCP presents all its telethons on the local level rather than on networks. They put someone like Garry Moore or Dennis James in, say, Little Rock. All night long, during hours the TV station would normally be off the air, Garry or Dennis present entertainment and also introduce all the local big wheels — athletes, local millionaires, mayors, and small, well-scrubbed children. The money goes to help cerebral palsy sufferers in Little Rock, not just everywhere.

According to George Lewis, who works on telethons for the UCP, the first thing you need is a terribly durable master of ceremonies who has to keep things moving sometimes as long as 30 hours.

DENNIS JAMES, it has been discovered, holds up splendidly over the long haul and seems to have just the right combination of warmth, informality, ability to think on his feet and, of course, stamina. James, Warren Hull and Jane Pickens are favorite telethon people for UCP.

Not everyone can manage it. Robert Q. Lewis did a telethon in Jacksonville once and, toward the end, came apart at the seams. He was so pooped that a woman called in and said she'd donate $50 if Lewis, for heaven's sake, would just sit down for awhile.

Garry Moore is another telethon man, full of bright ideas to fill the long hours. In Louisville he sold all his clothes, piece by piece, and wound up in his bathrobe.

Warmth and staying power are far more important than talent to a telethon emcee. Even the most rock-ribbed ones can't do more than one a month, though. Longest telethon on record was a 30-hour stint in Los Angeles presided over by Jack Webb. ("I just want the money, ma'am. Just the money.") It raised $500,000. Ralph Edwards also raised $500,000 on a shorter telethon in San Francisco. Others who do well at it: Bob Hope, Gabby Hayes, Jack Marson, Martin & Lewis.

WHILE THIS IS ALL great for charity, it is eating into the actors' own livelihood. Nightclub owners have protested for years that they can hardly be expected to lure customers to their clubs to see one big name act — if the customer can stay home and see 30 big names for nothing on television.

Ronald Reagan, president of the Screen Actors Guild, points out that the unpaid benefit shows have practically destroyed the club date which was once a lucrative source of income for entertainers.

Actors, who are notorious suckers for any charity, are just competing with themselves every time they play a benefit. "Variety," for example, reports that an unnamed artist played the Hollywood Bowl recently at a $2.80 top. At the Bowl were placards advertising a benefit with this artist and 29 others. So who wants to pay $2.80 to see just one artist?

But the charity people are not likely to give easily. If one year, 16 local telethons brought the United Cerebral Palsy people $3,340,000. From November through March of next year, 17 more telethons are planned in various cities from which UCP confidently expects to pick up another $2,500,000. It sure beats ringing doorbells.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market marched ahead today with good gains being shown in almost all major sections of the list.

The rise went to between 1 and 2 points at the outside. Losses seldom went to as much as a point.

Volume picked up on the rise and maintained a rate better than yesterday's 1,580,000 shares.

Among the best performing groups were steels, oils, coppers, rubbers, and radio-televisions.

Some losses cropped up in motors, railroads, chemicals, and aircrafts, but at the worst these sections were merely mixed.

Among gainers were Republic Steel, US. Rubber, Sears Roebuck, Zenith Radio, American Smelting, Air Reduction, Du Pont, American Cable & Radio, Santa Fe, Northern Pacific, Cities Service, Kern County Land, and Pan American World Airways.

Losers included Studebaker, United Aircraft, Dow Chemical, American Tobacco, Union Pacific, and U.S. Gypsum.

320 Young Persons Attend Area Event At Marion Church

More than 320 young people from 29 Methodist Churches in the east half of the denomination's Lima District attended the annual Booth Festival in Marion Sunday afternoon and evening at Epworth Church. Evaluation of canned foods and cash collected for the Methodist Children's Home at Worthington and for Flower Hospital at Toledo and represented in the booths built in the host church's educational unit amounted to $4,944.21 The theme for the festival was "Hands of Youth Open Closed Doors." Miss Sally McGinnis of Marion is district president.

In four categories in which the work on the booths was judged, Epworth Church won first place for "beauty," the Ada Church placed first in "originality," and Bellefontaine, "message" and "value." More than $600 was reported by the Bellefontaine group.

Four interest groups which met following erection of the booths used as their subject matter the Children's Home, with showing of pictures taken there; the hospital with discussion of career opportunities by a group of nurses; recreation; and tour of the Epworth Church youth center, "Our House," with visit to the "Upper Room" chapel featuring the new "art window" created by a group of the Epworth young people.

Miss Barbara Burke of Forest was in charge of a worship hour, and Rev. W. C. Eyster, host pastor, gave a welcome and had Scripture and prayer. Taking part also was Rev. Grover Reed of Forest and Miss Margaret Huffman of Epworth Church. George Lane was soloist, and a piano and organ duet were by Mrs. Tom E. Ballinger and Mrs. George Lane.

Dinner speaker was Rev. J. Otis Young of Columbus, administrative assistant to Bishop Werner. Marimba music was by Roy Loudenslager. Rev. Paul Baker from the Children's Home told of the needs there, followed by presentation of awards to the Youth Fellowships for the winning booths.

Nixon Takes New Post

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP)—Dr. Norval Neil Luxon became dean of the School of Journalism at the University of North Carolina yesterday. The former assistant to the president and professor of journalism at Ohio State University succeeded Oscar J. Coffin who now is devoting his full time to teaching. Luxon will begin teaching Feb. 2 when the next semester opens.

Hospital Head at Galion To Leave Post Dec. 15

Special to The Star

GALION — The resignation of A. P. Kilburn, superintendent of Galion City Hospital, was received Tuesday by Service Director J. A. Anker.

Kilburn's letter stated that his resignation is prompted by "my having accepted a more lucrative position, and not from any pressure having been imposed upon me for political reasons. It is my desire to make it plain that at the time I was engaged as superintendent of the hospital, political affiliation was not discussed, nor has it been discussed since that time."

The resignation will take effect Dec. 15.

Marion Girl Selected By Fraternities at ONU

Miss Janet Kuhner of Marion, sophomore at Ohio Northern University at Ada, reigned over the Inter-Fraternity Council ball held Tuesday evening in Taft gym there.

A candidate from Tau Kappa sorority for queen of the ball, she was elected by the fraternities over candidates from two other sororities. Miss Kuhner, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Kuhner of 273 S. High St., was crowned during the intermission of the dance.

She has been a cheerleader at Ohio Northern for the past two years and is a member of the university chorus-choir. Miss Kuhner is a graduate of Harding High School in 1952 where she was on the Quiver staff and is majoring in business administration at Ohio Northern.

THEY'RE TOPS ON TELEVISION. Jack Webb, Mary Martin and Donald O'Connor hold their trophies presented at the 1953 Sylvania television awards dinner in New York. Webb was honored as the creator, star and director of "Dragnet." Miss Martin won her award as the outstanding individual performer for her fashion satires. O'Connor was recognized as the most versatile performer of the year for his work on the Comedy Hour show.

STEVE CANYON By Milton Caniff

JANU DOES NOT LIE! THE NO-SEE WOMAN SOMEHOW LEFT HER CELL AND TOOK OVER THE TREATMENT OF OUR SICK!
EVEN SO! SHE HAS SEPARATED THE ONES WHO SUFFER FROM THOSE NOT TOUCHED! IT IS A THING TO SEE!
M-MR. CANYON, THEY JUS' MELTED AWAY—EVEN OUR GUARDS! ...I MUST GO HELP MY MOTHER!
THE NO-SEE WOMAN SENT A MESSAGE! YOU TWO ARE NOT TO COME TO HELP HER...YOU HAVE ONLY BEEN VACCINATED! SHE HAS HAD THE POX IN FULL STRENGTH!
S-SHE'S RIGHT... MY DADDY WAS ONCE STATIONED IN A REMOTE TOWN, AND MOTHER WAITED TOO LONG TO GET HER VACCINATION RENEWAL BECAUSE I WAS TOO SICKLY TO BE CARRIED THROUGH THE JUNGLE!.. SHE CAUGHT THE DISEASE, AND IT LEFT HER BLIND...
I-I'M GOING TO HELP HER!
MILTON CANIFF

THE HEART OF JULIET JONES By Stan Drake

I HAD A FIVE-SPOT HERE SOMEWHERE—
THIS ONE'S ON ME, SPOUSE...
BUT THAT'S A FIFTY-DOLLAR BILL... I'M AFRAID I HAVEN'T THE CHANGE.
PLEASE, KEEP IT!
YEAH... KEEP IT!
AND WHAT, O MASTER, DID I DO TO BRING THAT FROWN TO YOUR NOBLE DOME?
NOTHING—EXCEPT MAKE ME LOOK LIKE A BROKEN-DOWN CELEBRITY HOUND TOO POOR TO PAY FOR HIS OWN WEDDING CEREMONY!

YES, I'VE HAD SOME FUNNY JOBS IN THE OIL FIELDS, HANK, BUT I NEVER BEFORE HAD TO LOOK FOR A BODY IN A DRY HOLE.
WELL, AS AN EXPERT IN THIS DRILLING BUSINESS, CHARLIE, YOU'VE OPENED UP DRY HOLES BEFORE, HAVEN'T YOU?
CERTAINLY.
TELL ME, WHAT'S THE PERCENTAGE OF SHRINKAGE IN BENTONITE CLAY USED TO FILL THOSE DRY HOLES?
OH, MY GUESS IS MAYBE ONE PER CENT, MAYBE LESS.
HM?? IN A 3000-FOOT HOLE THAT WOULD MEAN A 20 TO 30-FOOT POCKET, PLENTY FOR A CORPSE.

How is Hope, Corky?
She says swell, Judy, the doctor says satisfactory.
Have you any names picked out?
A name. William Corkleigh Wallet!
Are you sure you won't change your mind? I was thinking of Karen Marie.
No. I'm positive.
It may seem strange for me to have a cute little neice named William.
Golly, it could happen!

Retirement Posible on Only $1,000 Nest Egg

WASHINGTON (UP)—There is a small community in Gautemala where a man could retire on $1,000.

Here there are no time payments to meet, no automobiles to keep up, and practically no fuel to buy because of the climate.

The 780 inhabitants of Panajachel on the shore of Lake Atitlan earn a total of about $25,000 a year, of which they spend $23,000 keeping themselves well in the black. They work as much or less as people everywhere and manage to indulge in a fair share of luxuries. They are expected to support their elaborate ritual celebrations with time and money—chiefly for liquor.

World-wide depreciation of money values has left Panajachel untouched and its economy continues to remain unchanged. Here on the edge of modern civilization, the average family need spend only $160 a year.
